HOW TO READ AND FOLLOW A GENEALOGY REPORT.

Once you figure it out, it's simple and instant, but it is difficult for someone new to figure out who is who. Everybody has a number. Our oldest proven common ancestor is #1 in this report, his children are all numbered. To find the family of any child, browse forward in the report until you come to that child and number's family. Likewise his/her children will be numbered. The report is also sectioned off by Generations. If you don't know your line, start at the end and find yourself and work backwards by the numbers. Please contact me with any corrections or additions. Thank you for your input.

Back in the 1980s, after I had found all I could from my grandmother and vital records and censuses, and John Boudway's d/c listing his parents as Francis Boudway & Mary Ann Crozier, I went to the American Canadian Genealogy Society in Manchester NH and told them I was looking for a Quebec name 'Boardway'. The librarian said "No you're not. You're looking for a name that got Americanised into Boardway." With just a little research through Quebec marriage registers, we soon found the marriage of Francois Xavier Beaudoin and Marie Anne Crozier.

Francois Xavier Beaudoin brought his family from Quebec to Orono Maine in 1852. He owned a small house (now gone) on Mill St in Orono, which might be next to the house son Frank owned later. He Americanized their name to Boardway. His children took on different spellings of the name including Budway, Boadway, and Boudway. His daughters were more difficult to track down. I recommend the following references for further research, which I have used: published Quebec Marriage Registers which is where I got the earlier generations, including "Genealogy of Families in the Counties of Beauce, Dorchester, and Frontenac"; VR of Old Town Maine Prior to 1892; Marriage Returns of Penobscot County Prior to 1892; Marriages of St Joseph's Catholic Church of Old Town Maine 1860-1960 by Robert E Chenard. I've also used the Social Security Death Index, VR, correspondence with descendants that I've found, obituaries, census records. There are no known photos of this first generation in Maine. Much burned in a 1908 fire in Orono.

Francis and his wife Mary Ann are buried in the Riverside Catholic Cemetery on Rt 16 in Orono. See my website for gravestone photos.

A Frank Boardway bought land in Orono May 1864.

Bob Chenard in Feb 2011 found the complete family records in Quebec, with some alternate names and slightly different dates or places, but obviously the original birth record is the correct birth-place.:

As for those children of Francois Beaudoin and M.-Anne Crozier who were born in Maine, they were baptized either at St.Joseph parish in Old Town or St.John parish in Bangor.

Francis married Marie Ann CROZIER, daughter of Thomas CROZIER and Marie Anne SLONE, 6 Feb 1835 in Ste Marie, Beauce, QC. Marie was born in Nov 1817 in , England and died 22 Mar 1884 in Orono, Penobscot, ME.

Feb 6 1835 Ste Marie de Beauce Marriage Cert in French: Francois Beaudoin, cultivateur (farmer) son of Francois Beaudoin & feue (= deceased) Marguerite Gosselin, md Marie Anne Crozier, dau of feu (= deceased) Thomas Crozier & Marie Anne Slone; in presence of Francois Beaudoin, pere (father) & Charles Bilodeau, ami (friend).

Mary Ann Crozier (Marie Anne Crozier in Quebec Marriage registers) was born in England. Her father Thomas was born in England and died by 1835. Her mother was Marie Anne Slone born New Brunswick. Census and her ch d/c's or m/c's consistently say their mother was born England; 1880 census says her parents born England & New Brunswick. Possibly her parents traveled back and forth and she was born there?

She was a teacher of Greek and Latin and operated a small store in her later years; she also became blind in her last years. Source Ed Boudway of Claremont NH.

Bob Chenard writes 2/23/2011: I don't think M.-Anne Crozier was English. I believe her mother, Sloan, was Irish Catholic and probably her father as well. Keep in mind that back then Quebec and the rest of Canada was under English rule and if anyone was from any part of the English throne (which Ireland was back then) they were English subjects. Many, many Irish migrated to Quebec in the early to late 19th century.

From Bob Chenard 2/24/11: As for your Philip born in 1850 in Montreal, that was a bit far-fetched, so I checked the earlier records of the church in Lambton for him and sure enough there he was.

Philippe Beaudoin was born on 21 Feb 1849 at Forsythe (later the new parish of St.Evariste was formed and called St.Evariste de Forsythe).

He was baptized there on 4 Mar 1849, son of Francois Beaudoin and M.-Anne Crozier. The Godparents were not evidently related - probably friends - so I left that information out. He first married Linda E. Merrill 24 Jun 1871 probably in Bradley. Then he married Harriett N. Lowe who was 23 years younger than him, on 21 Nov 1898.

Philip and Lucinda divorced Apr 1897 Penobscot Co court; record says they married 1 July 1871.

1880 Agricultural census for Bradley, Phillip Boardway tilled 40 acres, 60 acres woodland, Farm value $1500, implements $25, livestock $200, cost of building and repairing in 1879 $30, paid $100 for farm labor in 1879 for 26 weeks, value of all farm productions in 1879 $450, 12 acres mown, 18 tons hay harvested, 1 horse, 4 milch cows, 3 other, 3 calves dropped, 300 lbs butter made in 1879, 1 swine, 16 barnyard poultry, 100 dozen eggs produced in 1879. 1920 Charlotte census: Phillip 69, Hattie N 43, Nellie 19, Ruth 11.

Since St.Evariste of Forsythe parish was not established until 1855, I checked a neighboring parish (St.Vital in town of Lambton) (same county of Frontenac) and there she be.

Sunday March 6, 1896 Springfield Republican newspaper, found on GenealogyBank.com:

NORTHAMPTON'S NEW FIRE CHIEF, J A Boudway, who begins his duties tomorrow morning. [See my Boudway website for a photo/sketch of him.]

Northampton, Saturday, March 5.

The accompanying picture is a good idea of the new chief of the Northampton fire Department, Joseph A Boudway, who will come into authority Monday morning. He is a bright young businessman, who came from Orono Maine, on the Penobscot to Northampton about 15 years ago. For several years he has conducted a successful fishmarket and fruit store, opposite the City Hall. For nine years he has been the fire department, during four of which he was foreman of hose company No 5. He is well known as a sprinter and has been captain of the W. A. Bailey running team for a number of years. As a hose coupler he has not a superior in the country and has often been called to other states to coach running teams and to act as coupler in races. He is quick in judgment and affable in manners and has no trouble in handling men. He already has plans for improving the department under consideration which the city committee on the fire Department will undoubtedly favor. It now takes from 6 to 10 minutes to get the horses harnessed to the steamer or any of the apparatus because the animals are inconveniently situated in the engine house. By making a few changes and a little training the new chief is confident that he can get the apparatus out in about 1 min., an important item when a fire breaks out. Then he thinks it would be well to change the alarm system somewhat so that the men could be more readily awakened at night.

July 20, 1895 issue comments that "Chief Boudway is certainly earning his salary of $127 a year."

Jan 10, 1896 Springfield Republican:

Mayor Field reappointed J.A. Boudway chief of the fire department.

July 20, 1896 Springfield Republican:

The [Northampton] fire department has decided to set up three new fire alarm boxes, one at the Mt Tom mills, one at Crescent street, and the third on North Main street in Florence. The mill property is now outside of city fire limits... With the new roads, Chief Boudway is of the opinion that the department can go to the mills in 10 minutes.

Jan 25, 1896 paper has an advertisement: "A RARE opportunity. A Fish and Oyster Business, Restaurant connected, for sale. Central location in Northampton. The only exclusive fish market in the city. An extensive route and patronage. Chance for $50,000 business yearly. Address J A Boudway, Northampton". March 24 issue announces it was sold to Miller & Robbins who plan to discontinue the restaurant.

April 8, 1897 - Boudway & Blanchard apply for a liquor license.

He is also referred to as (J) Albert Boudway in theater articles likely his stage name.

January 10, 1906 MP Tuttle of New Haven has attached the property of Bridget M Boudway of Northampton for $1500 in an action of contract. January 10, 1906 Bridget M Boudway filed a deed transferring interest in property on Spring Street to Mary E Boudway.

Sept 25, 1925 Springfield Republican has a headline ALDERMANIC BOARD COMMENDS BOUDWAY. A vote of appreciation of the service of acting manager J A Boudway of the Academy of Music was passed by the board of aldermen tonight. Mr. Boudway was appointed acting manager for the summer season, pending the opening of the fall and winter season, of the Northampton repertory company. ...

JOSEPH BOUDWAY DIES AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS

Was Manager of Academy of the Music – Employed at Theater 30 Years

Northampton, January 20 – Joseph A Boudway, 69, manager of the Academy of Music, died this afternoon at 1:30 at the home on Spring Street, after a short illness with pneumonia. Mr. Boudway had been confined to the house only three days. He had been employed at the Academy of Music 30 years, having joined the Academy force as a stagehand. He was assistant manager during the repertory periods and manager during the interim periods. He was greatly devoted to the interest of the theater, and his part in the management has been efficiently conducted. He was known to all the patrons and was held in high esteem by them. At times, when stock was in force at the theater, he took parts in the plays.

Mr. Boudway was born at Orono Maine, and came to this city when he was 14 years of age. His early employment was at the sawmill of the Connecticut River Lumber Company at Mount Tom, and he subsequently engaged in the fish business in a store on Main Street. Mr. Boudway was chief of the fire department 10 years, and was one of the most efficient heads the department has had. He was a member of the W A Bailey running team, which won fame in the valley by its successes in many contexts. It was said that the victories of the team were due largely to Mr. Boudway's speed in running and his quickness in attaching the nozzle to the hose. Before entering the employ of the Academy of Music, Mr. Boudway was employed by the telephone company in the work of installing instruments. Mr. Boudway leaves his widow, who was before marriage Miss Bridget Dignan of the city, three sons, Joseph, who is employed at the academy, Frank of New York City, and John of the city; four daughters, Mrs. A S Deane of this city, Mrs. Albert Hiltbold of Springfield, Mrs. Claude Orechia of Florence, and Mrs. William Wall of this city; a brother, Philip of Old Town Maine, and nine grandchildren. He was born 14 Dec 1834 at St.Francois, Beauce and she on 11 Feb 1839 same place. After Philomene aka "Lavina" died, Abraham married a second time to Sophie Lachance, widow of Moise Mathieu, on 29 Apr 1876 at St.Francois de Sales church in Waterville. They had 4 sons and a daughter. One son, Napoleon, married on 2 Sep 1903 in Farmington (St.Joseph parish) to Alice Boardway (Beaudoin).

The Delaware families around here are split - some call themselves Delaware while others kept Drouin. I did their whole genealogy for my sister's friend, Jeannette Drouin - now 85 in a nursing home in Skowhegan. Abraham and his second wife were her paternal grandparents. The last living descendant of Abraham was Julie who recently died almost 100 years old.

Abraham was the son of Joseph Drouin and his second wife, Athalie Boucher.

How and why did the Drouin name get corrupted to Delaware?SIMPLE. In many Beauce county Quebec parish records, their name was often spelled the way they pronounced it back then with a strong Beauce accent. The corrupted spelling was Derouin. Pronounced with a heavy Beauce accent, Drouin (Derouin) would sound very close to "Del-a-rin" and so when English only persons heard the name they spelled it like it sounded - Delaware. Subsequently in Maine civil and census records they were Delaware. In Catholic church records they were mostly Drouin or Derouin.

By the way, Abraham Drouin is buried in Gardiner where he was living with his son there in his last days. We have a whole genealogy on this Drouin family at our gen. library as is filed in the Canada room. Take a look at it next time you visit us.

A TRIBUTE TO MARY ARVILLA DILL

You've heard the expression,
(All goodness and light)
It applies to so very few,
I've had the special privilege
Of knowing her personally, too.
Her love was great for everyone,
With children it really was funny
Her hand would go for her pocketbook
She'd smile, as she slipped them some money.
Seventy-eight years, God let her stay
Each life she touched, was better
She left a warm feeling in your heart,
You are always glad you'd met her.
She was "Ma" to a lot of folks,
Aunt Villa or Grammie to others,
She was an example, God put on this earth,
A Mother, among all Mothers.
With love,
Marion Rhoades

Obituary from July 11, 1968 Kennebec Journal:

Farmingdale '96 Frank E Boudway, 83, died at a Gardiner nursing home Wednesday following a long illness. He was born in Orono January 18, 1885, the son of John M and Mary Pooler Boudway. He was married to the late Agnes Peterson Boudway.

He was a former member of the Farmingdale Fire Department and Gardiner Lodge of Elks. Prior to his retirement in 1957, he was employed for 53 years at the Commonwealth Shoe and Leather Company.

He is survived by one son, Edward F Boudway of San Diego California; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Rankin of Pittston; and Mrs. Marion Rhoades of Farmingdale; eight grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

A Requiem high funeral Mass will be sung Friday at 9 AM at St. Joseph's Catholic Church Gardiner. Staples Funeral Home.

Marion said that Frank always worked in the shoeshop, working up to the heeling machine, and retired about age 78 without even a thankyou, and they also called him back to fill-in from time to time. Frank and Agnes picnic-ed on Pleasant Pond (Cobbosecontee), New Mills section of Gardiner. They played polo on roller skates. Agnes sewed all their clothes and dollclothes, and was a very neat housekeeper and a good cook, and made good hermits.

Frank seemed in perfect health into his 80s, when he was attending a high school football game and the bleachers collapsed. At the hospital when they opened him up, they found cancer and promptly closed him back up. He lived at home with Marion at 133 Northern Ave Farmingdale (83 after 911 changes), and his bed was brought downstairs to the living room until Marion just couldn't take care of him anymore and he went into a nursing home. That house was purchased in the early 1930s; previous residence was next door at 131, where Dot Boudway Rankin also lived. Frank's sister Arvilla Boudway Dill lived next door on the other side at 135.

Frank/Gramp used to tell us kids Indian stories and sing the old Indian songs that his ancestors sang around the campfire. Then Nana/Marion would say, "Dad, stop making up those stories, we're not Indian." He was quite a character and over 40 years later, I still really miss him.

Frank married Agnes Elizabeth PETERSON, daughter of Karl Albert PETERSSON and Johanna Malvinna GROSS, 12 Oct 1909 in Gardiner, Kennebec, ME. Agnes was born 3 May 1888 in Marstrand - Kungälv, Västra Götaland, Sweden and died 30 Oct 1925 in Farmingdale, Kennebec, ME.

Agnes came to America in 1903 from Marstrand Sweden, sponsored by either her uncle Julius Gross or uncle Gus Koenig. We have photos of Gus. She didn't speak a word of English, and she was taught by being ignored unless she spoke English, even asking for food at the table. She was told, you are American now, you speak American.

I have a leather postcard of Boston Public Library sent in May 1906 to Miss Agnes Pettersson, 38 Pleasant St, Gardiner ME, by "Hattie". Nana/Marion said that Agnes lived in Gardiner (Lincoln Ave?) as a nanny/housekeeper for the Peasley family in Gardiner before marriage. She would often visit her Aunt Emily Gross Bailey. Elsie Reeck in her book says, Agnes loved to dance, so she met a nice man at one of the square dances in the Grange Hall and married him (Frank Boudway). So now both would come to the farm. They liked to play cards, whist and hearts.

F i. Patricia BOADWAY was born 6 Mar 1921 in Pasadena, Los Angeles, CA and died 15 Feb 2014 in Palos Verdes, Los Angeles, CA.

Patricia Boadway Cox passed away peacefully at home on February 15, 2014, at age 92. Born March 6, 1921 in Pasadena, CA, she grew up there with her younger sister, Janice, and parents, Walter M. and Beth Frost Boadway.

Pat earned her BA and MFA degrees from Mills College. After graduation, she worked as a graphic designer until she married Dale W. Cox on February 19, 1946, a loving union that lasted until Dale's passing on June 25, 2013. With her husband a naval aviator on an astronaut path, the young family moved continuously. While never abandoned, art took a back seat for Pat, who concentrated on her marriage and then being mother to three active sons, while settling into many various residences. However, when Dale retired, they bought a house in Palos Verdes and lived there for the rest of their lives. In PV, Pat began to have more time for her art pursuits. "Pat is the mother of us all" became a catchword among her fellow artists, students and friends, as Pat always willingly took time out to help with advice or sharing her seemingly never-ending font of information. She was a voracious reader and apparently remembered everything she encountered, generously sharing this talent with answers to our questions before we all had Google to consult. She successfully pursued paths between traditional watercolor and oil, and moved on to collage, mixed media and assemblage. This latter field led her to a higher and higher reputation with requests from major art venues who wanted to exhibit her work and bestowed many awards. Pat served frequently as a juror for the National Watercolor Society as well as many other art organizations. In 1975 she was a judge for the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. She served on the Los Angeles Art Association's Board for seven years. From 1982-1985 she served as exhibition chair for the Palos Verdes Art Center and co-curator of Exhibitions from 1985—1987. Pat's work has been included in exhibitions at the Guggenheim Foundation, Carnegie Hall, LACMA Art Rental and the Los Angeles International Contemporary Art Fair. Her titanium sculpture is on long term exhibit at the Mercer Island WA. Community Center. Her work has been purchased by many museums and private and corporate institutions.

Pat is one of life's irreplaceable cast of characters to all who knew her, and is survived by her sister, Jan Hogan; three sons, Brian, Dale III, and Gary (Karen); daughter-by-choice Penelope; and grandchildren George, Dylan, Courtney, Lily, and Alden. Children from this marriage were:

- M i. Edgar Atkinson BOADWAY Jr was born 14 Jan 1936 in Boston, Suffolk, MA and died 29 Jun 2016 in Claremont, Sullivan, NH. He had no known marriage and no known children.
EDGAR A. BOADWAY, JR., ae. 80, often referred to as one of "America's foremost organ historians," died peacefully at home in Claremont, New Hampshire on June 29, 2016. He was born in Boston on January 14, 1936, the oldest son of Edgar Atkinson (1901-82) and Sammie T. (n. Graham) Boadway (1904-2002). His only sibling, Raymond Hensel Boadway (1937-95), predeceased him by more than two decades. Ed never married, and although his obituary as published in the July 2 issue of the Claremont Eagle Times was atypically cursory, he had a marked influence on thousands of people during his many decades in church music, and as an author, editor, organ builder, performer, proof-reader, researcher, but especially as a teacher. Ed taught everyone he came in contact with, and for those fortunate enough to spend time with him on a continuing basis, he taught a lot.
After growing up in southern Quebec, Ed attended high school between September 1953 and the spring 1955 at the Kimball Union Academy in Meriden, New Hampshire. That fall, he entered the University of Vermont at Burlington, and graduated four years later on June 14, 1959 with a BA degree in English. Some years later, he did graduate work at the University of New Hampshire. Ed was drafted into the U.S. Army on July 13, 1959, completed basic training at Fort Dix, and later served in Washington, D.C. and in Kitzingen, Germany. After it was discovered that he could type 60 words a minute, a skill not shared by many of his fellow recruits, he was assigned clerical duties for the remainder of his service. Years later, he sheepishly admitted to playing chapel services on a Wurlitzer "organ" at Fort Dix and a Hammond at the Pentagon, although those instruments were not much to his liking.
Between 1962 and '66, Ed took a job with the Andover Organ Company in Methuen, Massachusetts, working alongside his colleague and friend Robert J. Reich. From 1966 to '68, he taught at the Thomas More School in Harrisville, and between 1969 and '70 at the Crotched Mountain School for the Deaf in Greenfield, both in New Hampshire. Between 1970 and '83, he was an English teacher at the Claremont Middle School, teaching a generation of the city's youth to write in complete and grammatically correct sentences. Later in life, Ed worked as an organ technician, but his specialty was restoring antique American reed organs. He was a conscientious craftsman, and was widely respected for the quality of his work.
Ed was also a devoted churchman and served a number of New England congregations as organist. Between 1968 and September 1971, he worked at Grace United Methodist Church in Keene, New Hampshire, then the home of a splendid 1869 Steer & Turner organ. In October 1971, he accepted an appointment at the First Baptist Church of Newport, New Hampshire, playing on a two-manual Hook & Hastings organ, Op. 1776, 1897, remaining until the fall 1972. Beginning with Christmas 1972, he became the organist at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Windsor, Vermont, home of the Organ Historical Society Emblem organ. In 1973, he started a thirty-four-year tenure as organist and choirmaster at St. Mary's R.C. Church in Claremont, retiring early in 2007. St. Mary's owned a fine, two-manual organ by Jesse Woodberry & Co., Op. 136, 1895. His final appointment was at the United Church of Ludlow, Vermont, where he played on an 1898 organ by Geo. S. Hutchings of Boston. Toward the end of his life, Ed asserted that he had played for "some 35,000 funerals, rehearsals, Masses, services and weddings," and most of those were on tracker organs he admired. His passion for old American pipe organs was a continuing thread throughout his life. Beginning at age 12, he played on a Hook & Hastings, Op. 1202, 1884, built for the Methodist Episcopal Church, Stanstead, Quebec. A year later, he was substituting on an 1890 Woodberry & Harris organ in the Congregational Church, Newport, Vermont. At age 20, he became a founder and life-long member of the Organ Historical Society, serving the organization under many guises. He was the first OHS Secretary, wrote the first set of OHS Bylaws, and was elected president of the organization in 1973. He served as the chairman of the Cape Cod convention in 1966, wrote the organ descriptions for the Saratoga convention in 1967, and served on four convention committees: Worcester, Massachusetts 1968, Central Vermont 1972, Keene, New Hampshire 1974, and Northern Vermont 2013. He was the impetus behind establishing the Archives (now the Organ Historical Society Library and Archives) and was the first to index all the old organs in a given state. That ground-breaking effort evolved into the OHS Extant Lists and later became national in scope. He received the Society's Distinguished Service Award in 1990, and was elevated to Honorary Membership on June 28, 2013, the highest commendation the organization bestows.

Ed authored one book, A Brief History of the Roman Catholic Church of St. Mary in Claremont, New Hampshire in 1995, and played a major role in the production of The Bicentennial of the Pipe Organ in Vermont, published by the OHS in June 2013. His catalog of "all" the pipe organs in the Green Mountain State from 1813 to the present is a model of accuracy, brevity and precision.

Ed was a loyal member of the Vermont Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. He served as Dean between 2000 and 2004, and for a while edited the newsletter, The Vermont Organist, beginning in 1989. He was the founder of the Boston Organ Club, and he wrote and produced the Boston Organ Club Newsletter from its inception in 1965 until 1995, a journal still respected for its accurate coverage of organ news. He was a cherished guest at convocations of organists, and lectured on "The Historical Organs of Vermont" to a gathering of the St. Wilfrid Club in New York City on October 26, 2009. He was a trustee and supporter of the Estey Organ Museum in Brattleboro, and an enthusiastic patron of the Vermont Historical Society. Ed was notorious for his abhorrence of technological advances. He did not own a car much of his life, did not install a telephone until 1968, and was among the "last" to use a computer. When challenged, he sputtered that "His brain was his computer and his hands and his Royal typewriter were his printer!" Ed was profoundly literate. He adored black-walnut Victorian furniture, ecclesiastical architecture, and was an avid collector of American organabilia. His voluminous collection, known to his colleagues and friends as the Boadway Archive, encompassed thousands of books, directories, histories, manuscripts, newspapers, photographs, recordings, stereo slides, and realia from American pipe organ manufacturers. Following his death, his collection was distributed at his request to the Estey Organ Museum, the Massachusetts Historical Society, the Paddock Music Library at Dartmouth, the Organ Historical Society Library and Archives, and the Vermont Historical Society. He was intensely private; a miniature sign hung conspicuously over his doorbell and stated firmly: "Visitors by appointment only!" Ed was known for his quick wit, his "occasional" penchant for intransigence, and he did not suffer fools gladly with either grace or silence. He was a gourmand, delighted in exotic cookbooks, and had a particular affinity for German Riesling. Ed was a cultured and gracious host: an invitation to "Manhattans in the Boadway Parlor" was one of the more coveted social events in Claremont. He was widely acknowledged for his penetrating intelligence, and was mentally sharp until the day of his death.

Ed is survived by a nephew, Edward A. Boadway and family of Essex Junction, Vermont, hundreds of faithful students, and a loyal coterie of colleagues and friends. He was interred on August 24, 2016 in the Athearn Cemetery in Anson, Maine, beside his brother, parents, grandmother, and several other members of the Boadway family. Requiescat in pace.

AUGUSTA - More than 25 family and friends gathered in the dining room of MaineGeneral Rehabilitation & Nursing Care on Graybirch Drive Saturday afternoon to celebrate the 100th birthday of Jesse Boudway.

Boudway, a Maine native who has farmed, worked in a shipyard and repaired small engines in his life, listened to all the the birthday cards for him as they were read aloud. Messages included "A hug is a gift where one size fits all, and no one minds if you exchange" and "Precious things are all too few. I guess that's why there's only one of you." After all the cards were read, Boudway held a large cake in front of him while many took pictures. Then people lined up for cake and ice cream. Frances Giles, Boudway's niece, pointed out a motorcycle balloon for her uncle and recalled his fondness for riding motorcycles. He gave Giles her first ride on one when she was a teen-ager. The motorcycle's tilts from side to side frightened her. "And I've never been on one since." she said.

Susan Sargent remembered her great-uncle's nickname for her. She was unsure where it came from. "I was always 'Sunshine' to him. And he always had a pocket full of candy for the kids," Sargent said.

Ralph E. "Duddy" Dill

FARMINGDALE -- Ralph E. "Duddy" Dill, a precious one from us, has to a safe place Heaven. He will leave a vacant place our home that can be filled. Duddy, as he was always called, died March 13, 2011, in Augusta. He was born at home at 87 Northern Ave., in Farmingdale, on Nov. 14, 1917, a son of William and Arvilla Boudway Dill.

Ralph and Dorena were married April 26, 1943, and raised three children in Farmingdale. He was a veteran of World War II and was a seven-year member of the American Legion Post 2 in Augusta.

Duddy will always be remembered as a kind, gentle person. He picked up the trumpet at an early age and with a very good music teacher was able to play for his friends at school dances. He also had his own orchestra "Duddy Dills Band." He went on to perform with the Bostonians Club Band at the Old Armory in Gardiner. They also played at Belgrade Lake Casino for eight years. He played with a variety of good musicians, Al Cory, Gordon Howe, and with the Jones four-piece band at the Greene Grange Hall. He made many friends playing at the hall. He always said that he was so happy when he played for all his many friends. At the age of 87 he retired his trumpet.

He worked as a first class mechanic for O'Connor Motors and retired from Wyman and Simpson in 1982. He was still very active working in his garage until his stroke at 93.

Ralph was predeceased by a son, James J. Dill, in 1997; daughter Anita M. Dostie in 2005; a son-in-law, Joe Gagne, in 1976; a brother, Ashley; and four sisters, Ethel Perkins, Kathleen Dulac, Helen Nuzzo and Thelma Rogers.

He is survived by his wife, Dorena Gagne, of Farmingdale; a daughter, Peggy Lee Pare, of Bath; daughter-in-law Cindy (Dill) and husband Nick Russo of Florida; eight grandchildren, Darlene and John Dumont of Minot, Steve Dostie of Minot, Mark Pare and companion Lisa Spiller of Augusta, Dorena Martin of Bath, Ann Marie and husband Ben Keech of Florida, Crystal and husband Larry Hadley of Florida, Doug Dill of Florida, Eliot and wife Kristie Dill of Florida; 18 great-grandchildren; and several nieces nephews and cousins.

He had an extended family Kathy Patterson who went to visit him every week, also his niece, Barbara, and husband David McInnis and nephew Dick Dulac who would always bring a smile to his face, and a very special friend, Don Tuttle "his buddy."

Committal service with military honors will be held Thursday, March 17, at 1 p.m. at the chapel in the New Maine Veterans Memorial Cemetery, Mount Vernon Road, Augusta.

The family would like to extend a special thank-you to HealthReach Hospice for the compassionate care they provided to Ralph and family.

Ralph married Dorena Marie GAGNE, daughter of Francois Xavier GAGNE and Delina BOLDUC, 26 Apr 1943 in Augusta, Kennebec, ME. Dorena was born 10 Oct 1923 in Augusta, Kennebec, ME and died 6 Jun 2016 in Farmingdale, Kennebec, ME.

Dorena Marie Dill passed away on June 6, 2016, at age 92. She died peacefully in her home in Gardiner, after battling cancer.

The daughter of Francois and Delena (Bolduc) Gagne, Dorena married Ralph E. Dill on April 26, 1943. They were married for 67 years before Ralph passed on March 13, 2011.

Dorena is survived by her daughter Peggy Lee Pare, her cousin Anita Whitehouse, her daughter-in-law Cindy and Nick Russo; her grandchildren, Darlene and John Dumont, Steven Dostie, Mark and Stacy Pare, Dorena and Jan Martin, Ann-Marie Dill, Crystal and Larry Hadley, Eliot and Kristie Dill, Corey Allen and Amanda Palmer, and Cristy and Paul Ingram; her 25 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

She was predeceased by her husband, Ralph E. Dill; her parents, Francois and Delena Gagne; her brother, Joseph (Florian) Gagne; her son, James J. Dill; her daughter, Anita M. Dostie; her grandson, Douglas Dill; and her son-in law, Albert A. Pare.

Dorena and Ralph lived in Farmingdale after they were married in the house Ralph's father built on Northern Avenue. It was a very happy home and all were welcome. It was a place where they could tell funny stories and enjoy doughnuts, cookies, and a good cup of coffee. Dorena was always busy making crafts. She loved to sew and make dresses for her two daughters, Peggy and Anita. Dorena could knit beautiful sweaters and crochet scrubbies and potholders. She would sew on buttons and fix zippers for the neighborhood kids.

Dorena loved to dance and on Saturdays she would go with Ralph to hear him play trumpet in the band. She would say, "Dad works and I dance to his music. I don't know if I fell in love with him or his trumpet. I am lucky; I loved them both." In the end, Dorena felt she lived a full and happy life, and God had been good to her.

Dorena would like to express her sincere appreciation to all who helped her during her time after Ralph's passing, for all of the rides to appointments and all of the times she was taken out to lunch. We would like to thank Hospice for the wonderful care they have provided Dorena with in the last few weeks.

MAINE SOCIAL section of Kennebec Journal: Rhodes-Boudway Gardiner, Dec 16 - Miss Marion Boudway and Roland Rhodes, both of this city, were married in Hallowell by Rev Nutter Saturday evening at 7:15. They were attended by the bride's father Frank Boudway, and Mr Rhodes' mother. Intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom were present at the ceremony. The newlyweds will live at 117 Northern Avenue, with Mrs Boudway's father.

Genetic tree: 5'2 1/2"; wt 130-150; brown hair/eyes; asthma, allergies, arthritis, bad back; cataracts. She loved chocolate, but was allergic. Her son Roland took a 23&Me DNA test which identifies his maternal Mtdna line as U2e, which is therefore also Marion's through Peterson, Gross, Borjesson. Her daughter Lynda took the Full Mtdna test at FTDNA, and was determined to be U2e2a1a. Haplogroup U2 arose in the Near East about 45,000 years ago. U2e is one of the oldest haplogroups in Europe. It appears to have reached there with some of the continent's first modern human settlers about 35,000 years ago, at a time when Neanderthals were the only Europeans. By the time of the Neanderthals' extinction about 28,000 years ago, haplogroup U2e was probably distributed across much of Europe. But today, thanks to the subsequent arrival of many other haplogroups, it has become relatively rare. U2e reaches its highest levels in places like the town of Murlo, where many inhabitants are thought to be descended from the pre-Roman Etruscan people. It is also relatively common among the Udmurts and Mordvinians, who live in the Volga River drainage and Ural Mountain regions.

Marion married Roland Edison RHOADES [PEAVEY], son of George Emery PEAVEY and Grace Emma FLAGG, 14 Dec 1929 in Hallowell, Kennebec, ME. Roland was born 21 Feb 1912 in Pittsfield, Somerset, ME and died 23 Nov 1997 in Gardiner, Kennebec, ME.

Y-DNA testing at FTDNA, corroborated by testing a cousin's Y and autosomal, determines that Grace's husband Roland Rhoades was not the father, a Mr Peavey was. Family photo comparisons of facial features helps to confirm. Further research now takes this line back, and getting dna matches and family photos from this family to confirm the match.

In the spring of 1954 the family, Roland, Marion, dau Lynda and son Roland and family all moved to Phoenix AZ where Ed Boudway said there were jobs. They lasted 3 months before homesickness got them and they moved back to Maine where all their friends and family were. An old photo album says they left Maine April 5 and arrived in Phoenix April 11; they left Phoenix July 22 and got home July 28, 1954. They lived at 3112 E Diamond St. The address on Google Earth in 2012 looks unrecognizable.

Roland and Marion are buried at Maine Avenue Cemetery, Farmingdale ME. Marion's memorial and story is at www.RolandRhoades.com/nana.htm. Roland was a member of the Pipefitters Union, traveling to many places for work. Being a union member, the family has always been strongly Democratic politically. Worked at Bath Iron Works, and helped build the St Lawrence Seaway in NY in the 1950s or 1960s. While at BIW, someone came up to him and said I think I know your sister. He replied, I don't have a sister. This was when he first learned that he did have a half-sister via his father's first marriage, Irma Rhoades Wall Butler. She visited and a group family photo is on my Rhoades family webpage. Roland Sr died when he was less than 2 years old. Roland was named after Thomas Edison because his father had worked with and thought highly of him. Roland was also a member of the Freemasons, though I don't recall him ever mentioning it; The Maine Mason magazine just kept coming in the mail. He loved to eat and would have spaghetti eating contests with the Boudway side of the family (Butch Nuzzo). He and Marion bought their house at 133 Northern Avenue Farmingdale [83 after 911 change] around 1933 and lived there their whole lives, until Marion sold it in 2003.

I remember that their phone # when I was a kid was simply "768M", a party line that was frequently being used by a neighbor when you wanted to use it.

My grandfather Roland in a 1990 tape said that he went back and forth from his mother's to his grandmother's and Uncle John's homes. Quit school at 14 to work. Lots of different schools. Remembers an Uncle Lent, and an Uncle Eanus who carved stuff, even wooden chains.

RANDOLPH -- Elizabeth "Betty" Boudway, 76, of Randolph died on April 22, 2009, surrounded by her family after a courageous battle with cancer. She was born on Dec. 25, 1932, in Ludlow, the daughter of John and Alice Nixon. She married Lawrence E. Boudway in 1952 and settled in Randolph.

She was employed by Commonwealth Shoe (Kaiser Roth) and later by the Margaret Smith Handbag Factory, retiring in 1980 to take care of her grandchildren. She enjoyed spending time with her family, spoiling her grandchildren, shopping and socializing with her special friends, with which she was blessed with many.

Years were spent camping and visiting with her family, extended family and friends. Betty will always be remembered for her joy of life, dancing in the kitchen and her laughter. Above all, her greatest enjoyment and the spice of her life were her grandchildren and two great-granddaughters, who brought a smile to her face every time she spoke of or spent time with them, especially during the last week of her life.

Betty's world revolved around her family. She is survived by her daughter, Sue, and her husband, Mike Mansir, of Farmington; her son, Dan, and his wife, Carrie, of West Gardiner; grandchildren Eric and his wife, Wendy Mansir, of Wilton, and their daughter, Kylee, Amy and her husband, Derick Littlefield, of New Vineyard and their daughter, Raegan, Kara Boudway and her fiancé, Hunter Farwell, of Mount Vernon, and Jordan Boudway, of West Gardiner; brothers Robert Nixon and his wife, Beverly, of Winslow, Walter Nixon, of Florida, and Joseph Nixon and Liz Racicot, of Florida; sisters-in-law Priscilla Nixon, of Oklahoma, and Catherine Boudway, of Randolph; and many nieces and nephews whom she adored. She was predeceased by her husband of nearly 50 years, Lawrence; brother John "Jack" Nixon; and sister-in-law Christine Mansir.

The family would like to extend sincere appreciation to Dr. Healey and all of the staff at the Harold Alfond Center for Cancer Care for their care during her cancer treatment, to the doctors and nurses in the MaineGeneral Medical Center emergency room and, especially, to Dr. Jamie Bell, Dr. Scott Schiff-Slater and all of the wonderful nurses on A4 for their compassion and attentiveness during the last week of her life.

A graveside burial service will take place at 1 p.m. May 7 at the Maine Veterans' Memorial Cemetery in Augusta. Arrangements are under the care of Staples Funeral Home, 53 Brunswick Ave., Gardiner.

My first marriage to Charlotte VanDyne in 1959 was at Saint Marys Church, Bangor Maine, I don't have the exact date.

I have a map of Maine that shows the Boardway ponds west of Jo Mary Lake and east of Shawtown Twp. The map also shows big and little Boardman mtn. The map shows that there is a Fox pond (my wifes maiden name) and a Boardway pond that flow into yoke pond. As you know, a yoke binds two creatures together.
