

CAMBRIDGE, MAINE SOMERSET COUNTY

Incorporated 1834

Set apart from the town of Ripley (inc 1816)

TRANSCRIPTION OF TOWN VITAL RECORDS

Includes family registers with birthdates back to 1765, births, deaths, marriages and intentions.

Microfilm at Maine State Archives

Transcribed by Roland Rhoades 2009-2010

Roland Rhoades has been involved in genealogy and family history since 1980, and is a member of many genealogy and historical societies. He became involved in Cambridge records in the early 1980s when he discovered his Leavitt family there and had trouble digging up all the facts about them. Also coming to town were his Morgridge and Mason families (1830s), from Parkman and Leeds respectively. The Masons descend from Mayflower passenger Richard Warren. Elonia Paine Mason married Calvin Morgridge whose daughter Mary Abigail married Ralph Leavitt, who all lived in Cambridge. He has also transcribed the two cemeteries in town, with photos and additional family history. Family researchers will also want to check the surrounding towns of Ripley, Parkman, Harmony, and others for more records. He posts his research on his website for free use at www.RolandRhoades.com

Thank you to the Cambridge Town Hall and Carol Laplant for their helpfulness. I also thank Town Clerk Clara (Burdin) Watson for checking the original records in the places where the microfilm was too worn, light or dark to read, which are notated with an *.

3/29/10 update: I have the 74 pages of family registers now transcribed and typed here with the checks of the originals. I have left the spelling and mis-spellings as is, though I may use brackets for explanation.

Next is to transcribe the rest of the pages with marriages etc, much of which is very faint or worn on the microfilm.

This transcription may not be used for commercial publication without permission. It will likely eventually become a Maine Genealogical Society special publication.

FAMILY REGISTERS SECTION

With Births & Deaths dating appr 1765 to 1912

Note that some families seem to be totally absent while others have a wonderfully complete history telling where they came from and where they were born, and maiden names. As with any town, it depended on the thoroughness of the town clerk at the time, AND the individual families telling the town clerk what to write. Further information can be found through the town cemetery listings. Any (parentheses) are in the original; [brackets] are my addition, * means the original records were rechecked, CMG means see Cambridge Memorial Garden cemetery and MP means see Mt Pleasant cemetery listings. – Roland Rhoades
