First Generation

1. Isaac FLAGG was born on 25 Jun 1748 in MA and died on 7 Sep 1837 in Northport, Waldo, ME.

Flagg Families, on the Mason NH website has this post: Isaac FLAGG was born between 1745-48 at Weston, MA [ERROR]. He married Keziah RUSSELL on 9 Dec 1772 in Mason. Keziah's parents have not been determined, although we know she was born in Mason. Isaac began his Revolutionary War service on 19 April 1775 at Weston when he marched on the alarm under Capt. Samuel Lamson's company. He enlisted as a private. Isaac lived in Mason and was on Mason tax rolls until about 1795. He probably moved to Camden, ME for a time. He died on 7 Sep 1837 in Northport, Waldo Co., ME. Their children included: Isaac FLAGG, Jr and Andonijah.

Isaac FLAGG, Jr was born in Mason on 13 May 1778 and married Nancy THOMPSON in Camden, ME. Andonijah FLAGG's date of birth is unknown. He married in Mason [sic] to Elizabeth LIGHT who was born in Mason ca 1783. Andonijah (AKA: Adanigah) moved to Northport, ME where he had three children. Submitted by Bruce Connors, (contact info unk 1/08)

Williamson's History of Belfast (and The Republican Journal newspaper) says "Isaac Flagg died Sept 7, 1837 aged 92 (= b 1745), a Revolutionary soldier." It does not say where he was buried. His pension application said he turned 84 on 25 June 1832 = born 25 June 1748.

Isaac Flagg settled in Mason in 1771, was in the Battle of Bunker Hill in Capt Mann's Co. He was on the school committee in Mason, 9th District in 1791.

Isaac Flagg of Northport DID file a Rev War pension application, full of information, mentioning Mason NH, but also naming wife Judah. Same person as Keziah?? Have Flagg Family Bible info from Mildred (Coathup) Flagg, which sorted out much of the census confusion with cousins living together in censuses.

POSSIBLE ANCESTRY:

"Genealogies of the Early Settlers of Watertown MA..." by Henry Bond 1860 has the FLAGG Family beginning on page 219. Previous researchers have proposed, since OUR Isaac named a son the unusual name of Adonijah, that [pg 222] Adonijah b 1713 of Waltham who md Mary Corey of Weston 1749, had a son Isaac 14 June 1749, but that Isaac is the one who fought from Weston in the Rev War [p224]. However Adonijah also had a brother Isaac bap 28 Mar 1725 with no further info. It WOULD be natural if this Isaac had a son, our Isaac, who named sons Isaac and Adonijah.

If this proves out, ancestry would be Isaac 1725; John Flagg b 1677 md2 Sarah Hagar 1712; John Flagg 1643 md 1670 Mary Gale; Thomas Flagg-1 & Mary.

Isaac married Keziah RUSSELL on 9 Dec 1772 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH.

Keziah could possibly be the sister of Jason Russell-5 (Jason4 Hubbard3 Jason2 William1) 1742 Cambridge - 1825 Mason NH; had ch in Mason, p15 of William Russell Family by Opel Louise Currier.

Children from this marriage were:

- 2 M i. Isaac FLAGG Jr was born on 13 May 1778 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died on 21 Feb 1856 in Belmont, Waldo, ME.
- 3 M ii. Adonijah FLAGG was born in May 1783 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died on 28 Dec 1857 in Rockland, Knox, ME.
- 4 F iii. Polly FLAGG was born about 1784 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died after 1820.
- F iv. Hannah FLAGG.
- F v. Sally FLAGG.

Second Generation (Children)

2. Isaac FLAGG Jr (*Isaac*¹) was born on 13 May 1778 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died on 21 Feb 1856 in Belmont, Waldo, ME.

ISAAC FLAGG of Mason NH & Northport ME

Marriage record is on p504 of VR of Camden & Rockport 2006. Belmont was once known as Greene Plantation.

History of Hope Maine by Anna Hardy p27 (notes from Mildred Flagg) says:

Isaac Flag Jr of Mason NH arrived very early in 1800. Again, while he signed the 1804 petition Flag, his descendants use the more common spelling Flagg. (This petition of 1804 was for a change in town lines and a change in name from Barretstown to Hope.)

P 331, Family Register #1 says Isaac Flagg Junr born in Mason NH May 13, 1778. Also includes wife and dau. Robinson's History of Camden & Rockport ME says "in 1811 Isaac Flagg was one of the minor officers selected that year." Parts of the town of Hope used to be part of Camden. Hope was once known as Barretts Town, and was settled by people from New Ipswich and Mason NH, who had come from Concord MA.

Isaac Flagg Jr served in the War of 1812 as a Private in Capt James Weed's Co, Lt Col E Foot's regiment; Sept 3-9, 1814, Sept 21-23, 1814, and Nov 2-7, 1814, Raised at Hope, Service at Camden.

Isaac Jr and Nancy are buried in Belmont at their farm. Mildred Coathup (Mrs Thomas Flagg) told me 1982 she could still walk up the remains of the road to find the burned out farmhouse and the cemetery stones, but the woods had nearly reclaimed everything. The graveyard is on the remains of VanSickle Road, 250 paces past where the road ends 2010, then up a path through the rock wall about 200 feet. 2010 Isaac's stone is broken and disintegrating, but Nancy's is still fine.

Nancy's stone says Nancy [in reverse highlight] wife of Isaac Flagg, DIED Mar 6, 1867, AE 81 yrs. 9 mos. & 8 ds. Mother we love thee still. Leaning against a tree 2010.

Isaac was one of the first settlers of Belmont, before 1830. See Lincolnville Hist Soc Vol III Part II.

Mildred Flagg wrote to me March 2, 1982, from family stories carried down, that, "Isaac and Nancy were living in a part of Camden which is now Hope, in 1811 and moved to Belmont prior to 1830 where he built a house on the Flagg Road between Tunk Woods Road and Hall's Corner [now VanSickle Rd]. This road is now impassable. The old house burned several years ago. We went there some 20 years ago and located the old cemetery in one corner of the field; also located the remains of the old cooper shop at the side of the road where Ebenezer made barrels that he hauled to Rockland to the lime kilns. Isaac and Nancy, Ebenezer, and Micah's son are buried at the farm, also two of Ebenezer's children who died in 1849 in a cholera epidemic. Jane and husband are buried in Hillside Cemetery Rt 3 Belmont." 2012: Mildred says facing where the house was, the shop was to the left. There was also a 40' deep well on the property which may still be there and open somewhere. Walking from Halls Corner direction, you come to the cemetery first, then the cooper shop where you may see some of the brick foundation, then the house which would be back in the woods some. The well was near the road.

I owe a deep gratitude to Isabel Morse Maresh, who compiled the 712-page 8x11 book, "Belmont, Maine - The First Hundred Years" 2002, which actually covers more than that. Belmont town records burned along with other towns in the 1855 Great Fire, so she compiled these from cemeteries, newspaper reports, family records, and anything else she could find. The town was first called Green Plantation, and also included the town of Morrill.

Isaac married Nancy THOMPSON, daughter of Ebenezer THOMPSON and Mary GORDON, on 29 Oct 1804 in Camden, Lincoln, ME. Nancy was born on 29 May 1785 in Thomaston, Lincoln, ME and died on 6 Mar 1867 in Belmont, Waldo, ME.

Page 104 of The History of Camden and Rockport by Robinson:

On Nov. 7 [1796] a town meeting was called "at the School House Near Negunticook harbor", to see about building a meetinghouse, at which meeting it was voted "to Build a Meeting House at the crotch of the Road on Mr. Isaac Harrinton's land, Provided that said Land is given to the Town." It seems, however, that this meeting-house was never built, the project having failed, either because the land was not given or for some other cause.

Page 141: This year Major Joseph Pierce, before mentioned as being clerk of the "Twenty Associates," and to whom the said Associates had conveyed large tract of land in Camden in consideration of his "faithful services," came here to reside. Several years before Mr. Isaac Harrington had started to build what was known during the first half of the nineteenth century as the "old Mansion House," but before it was completed it passed into the hands of Major Pierce and was used by him as a residence while he remained in Camden. Major Pierce proved not to be so "faithful" to his employers in the end, for getting badly involved in debt and having illegally speculated in the lands of the "twenty Associates," he decamped from Boston about the year 1816, for parts unknown, taking with him the records of the Company and thereby causing much vexation and trouble both to the "Associates" and some of the settlers on their land, relative to the titles of the same. The "Mansion House" remained one of the landmarks of the town until 1852, when it was destroyed by fire. It was located on the hill on the southerly side of Elm Street, upon land now owned by Mrs. Ada B. Tremaine.

Isaac & Mary are buried Hillside Cem, Rt 3 Belfast, large marble monument with full dates.

Isaac Flagg willed the old family farm to his youngest daughter and her family of 12 children. They tore the barn down board by board for firewood instead of cutting trees. The farm has since been sold a couple times and is now owned by a man who is keeping the land in a wild state and not developing it. The house burned before he bought the land. The hay fields are no more; they're all grown up to elder bushes. Two other places along the same side of the road, the Van Sickle place and the Dell Thorndike place are also abandoned, grown up and fallen in. On the other side of the road were the places of Marcellus Flagg, Briggs, Moore, Jackson, Richards, and Wellman, all grown up to woods. I wonder if there aren't little family cemeteries there as well as at the Flagg farm. Even this road is just a jeep track now. - Sept 1989 letter from Mildred Flagg.

ISAAC FLAGG of Mason NH & Northport ME

Transcript of his obituary in The Pittsfield Advertiser, June 5 1913 . "The death of Roland E Rhoades occurred at 6:15 A.M. Monday at his home on North Main street after an illness of about a week. Mr Rhoades, who was a jeweler, was well known in this section of the state, having been in business at various times in Pittsfield. He was considered something of a genius, and had invented several articles, some of them having been sold for a good sum. He leaves a wife, a small son, a daughter by a former marriage, and one brother, John Rhoades of this town. His age was 45 years. Funeral services were held at his home at 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, Rev F.S. Walker officiating. Interment was made at the village cemetery."

Roland and son Ivan are both buried in Pittsfield Village Cemetery, but it appears there is no stone and no record and that the cemetery buried someone else on top of him. Daughter Irma in Pittsfield tried resolving the question with no luck in the 1950s. Rev Frederick S Walker was a Universalist minister, at Pittsfield Universalist 1908-1915, and later at Waterville 1925-1928. Roland and his family worked in textile shops in his early years. Roland's first patent for which we find a record was filed Jan 9 1891 when Roland was age 24 and granted Jan 26 1892. It was for an improvement upon the loom.

Roland Eaton Rhoades was named after Roland L Eaton (1835-1870), son of the Rhoades family's good friends and cousins by marriage, Joseph Eaton (1800-1865) and Mary A (1809-1868). The Eatons are all in Fort Hill Cemetery in Winslow.

1910 Belfast Ward 2 census lists Roland E Rhodes 41 div rents at 71 1/2 High St and is a jeweler, repair work, working on own account. Not found 1900.

Roland is listed in The Maine State Directory & Gazeteer 1893, p 282, and 1894 p 333, and 1895 p311 on Main St in Pittsfield, under Jewelry, Watches, etc. 1898 Worcester MA p411 has a Roland E Rhoades, loomsetter, 123 Tainter, bds. 32 Grand. 1907 Worcester p592 has a Roland E Rhoades, rem'd from city.

Annie L Rhoades divorced Roland E Rhoades for "gross and confirmed habits of intoxication", granted 14 Jan 1899. Damages $25. Annie m2 Howard Jacobs 24 Dec 1901 Pittsfield.

1902 M/C: Both of Pittsfield. Lillie is the dau of Orine R Soule & Eliza Spaulding, both of/b Palmyra. She m1 Mr Crosby. Lillie is divorced in 1902 age 30, md by J W Webster in Newport. Roland was 35 div jeweler, father b Fairfield, mother b Winslow. 1920 Pittsfield census lists Orin L Soule 77 & Eliza 75. 1900 Palmyra census lists Orin March 1842, Elizabeth Jan 1845 md 26y, 4-3ch, Orin A Crosby grandson Apr 1889. Orin Soule was the son of Rufus, a Mayflower descendant. L Mae Rhoades sued Roland E Rhoades for divorce in Kennebec Co court, for desertion, vol X-p23, granted 29 Sept 1910. Divorce record says they were married 8 Jan 1900, but m/c says 8 June 1902 in Newport. Found no further mar or death rec for Lillie, under any last name.

Family legend, as told by his wife Grace who lived until 1966, says that Roland was friends with Thomas Alva Edison, and that's why his son's middle name is Edison. Roland was a jeweler who worked on clocks. Grace Flagg was a schoolgirl, 27 years younger than him, who walked home past his jewelers shop in Belfast. They fell in love despite the age difference and got married. Grace also said that he was an alcoholic (also proven in the divorce record of his first wife), and had blinding migraine headaches. A family story passed down is that she being still a girl and not knowing better, as a tidy person, she emptied the little bit of rat poison left over into an old aspirin bottle to make more room. During his headaches, Roland would blindly reach into the medicine cabinet and feel around for the aspirin bottle and mistakenly took the rat poison which killed him. Grace remarried three more times.

Roland and Marion are buried at Maine Avenue Cemetery, Farmingdale ME. Marion's memorial and story is at www.RolandRhoades.com/nana.htm . Roland was a member of the Pipefitters Union, traveling to many places for work. Being a union member, the family has always been strongly Democratic politically. Worked at Bath Iron Works, and helped build the St Lawrence Seaway in NY in the 1950s or 1960s. While at BIW, someone came up to him and said I think I know your sister. He replied, I don't have a sister. This was when he first learned that he did have a half-sister via his father's first marriage, Irma Rhoades Wall Butler. She visited and a group family photo will be on my Rhoades family webpage. His father died when he was less than 2 years old. Roland was named after Thomas Edison because his father had worked with and thought highly of him. Roland was also a member of the Freemasons, though I don't recall him ever mentioning it; The Maine Mason magazine just kept coming in the mail. He loved to eat and would have spaghetti eating contests with the Boudway side of the family (Butch Nuzzo). He and Marion bought their house at 133 Northern Avenue Farmingdale [83 after 911 change] around 1933 and lived there their whole lives, until Marion sold it in 2003. I remember that their phone # when I was a kid was simply "768M", a party line that was frequently being used by a neighbor when you wanted to use it.

My grandfather Roland in a 1990 tape said that he went back and forth from his mother's to his grandmother's and Uncle John's homes. Quit school at 14 to work. Lots of different schools. Remembers an Uncle Lent, and an Uncle Eanus who carved stuff, even chains.

He sold his business and retired to Lakeland FL around 1985 in a retirement park where he has been President of the Shuffleboard Club, with many trophies.
