

Descendants of Isaac FLAGG

First Generation

1. Isaac FLAGG was born 25 Jun 1748 in , MA and died 7 Sep 1837 in Northport, Waldo, ME.

There is a different Isaac of Weston MA who fought in the Revolutionary War. Williamson's History of Belfast (and The Republican Journal newspaper) says "Isaac Flagg died Sept 7, 1837 aged 92 (= b 1745), a Revolutionary soldier." It does not say where he was buried, and ages at death were often exaggerated. His pension application said he turned 84 on 25 June 1832 = born 25 June 1748. Isaac Flagg (1748) father may be the Isaac Flagg b 1725.

Isaac Flagg settled in Mason NH in 1771; Isaac lived in Mason and was on Mason tax rolls for 1772, 1773, 1774 (Benjamin Mann town clerk), 1775, 1778, 1779, 1780, 1781, 1782, 1783, 1784, 1785, 1786, 1787, 1788, 1789, 1790, 1791, 1792. In 1783 he was chosen "Fence Viewer". He was on the school committee in Mason, 9th SW District in 1791.

June 17, 1775 - Capt Mann and the men of Mason, including Isaac Flagg, fought at the Battle of Bunker Hill.

Revolutionary rolls of NH Vol 14-15 at NH Historical Society:

Payroll of Capt Benjamin Mann's Co in Col James Reed's regiment to the first August 1775 8th Company; Isaac Flagg entered April 23, 1775.

By July 1776, Isaac Flagg is in the roll of Dapt Daniel Emerson Jr's Co in Col Wingate's Regiment.

Payroll for a Company of Volunteers commanded by Capt Benjamin Mann [of Mason NH], Col Nichol's Regiment in the Expedition to Rhode Island Aug 1778. Private Isaac Flagg Aug 6 - Aug 28, 1778.

1790 Mason NH census: Isaac Flagg: 1 male 16+, 2 males under 16 [Isaac Jr & Adonijah], 5 females [Keziah, Polly, Hannah, and 2 others, not necessarily daughters]

1800 census - appears that Isaac was traveling and missed the census takers.

Have Flagg Family Bible info from Mildred (Coathup) Flagg, which sorted out much of the census confusion with cousins living together in censuses.

Isaac Flagg & Juda Flagg, wife, sold land in 1828 to Adonijah Flagg and the town of Camden. Judah same person as Keziah?, second marriage?

Reportedly had daughter Sally also, but no further info or source for Sally.

Isaac Sr and wife seem to be living with son Isaac in 1820 Camden-Hope, and son Adonijah in 1830 Northport.

Rev War Pension Application "S.31029 New Hampshire Service. Isaac Flagg of Northport, Waldo County, Maine, aged 84 years June 25, 1832, deposed: that he enlisted in April or May 1775, it being about a fortnight after the Lexington Battle, for eight months under Col. Reed, Capt Benjamin Mann; served out his time and was dismissed at Winter Hill, December 31, 1775; that he was in the engagement at Bunker Hill; that he enlisted again July 1, 1776 for five months; joined his company at No. 4, New Hampshire; marched to Ticonderoga; was stationed at Mt Independence and was dismissed a fortnight before the expiration of his term, because the enemy instead of making an attack as was expected passed by into Canada, and the whole number of American troops were not needed at the point afterwards; that he served under Capt Daniel Emerson; that in the summer of 1778, he thinks in July, when the French fleet were lying at Newport, Rhode Island, Gen. Sullivan called for more troops and he enlisted and marched to Rhode Island building forts and fortifying as they approached Newport where they expected an engagement; that finding the enemy in pursuit of them, he with his company, retreated and returned home in August, having served about six weeks, under his former Captain Mann; that during all these enlistments his home was in Mason, New Hampshire. Isaac Flagg.

May 3, 1833 Nathaniel Hosmer of Camden, Waldo County, Maine, 66 years of age, testified that he has known Isaac Flagg, who lives in the same county, from childhood; that in 1775 deponent lived in Mason, New Hampshire and was intimately acquainted with the family; that when the Alarm came that the English were killing our people at Lexington, Flagg, with others started for that place and did not return until the next winter; that during the summer of 1775 I went with my father down to Cambridge, and when we went together to Winter Hill where said Flagg was stationed, purposely to see him and I well recollect that he was then a private in Capt Benjamin Mann's company; that when he returned there was a very heavy snow-storm and he required some assistance to get out of a snow drift; that while Flagg was at Ticonderoga in 1776 deponent's father went to Ticonderoga with articles to dispose of to the soldiers and stated on his return that he had seen Flagg; that deponent's father marched to Rhode Island with Flagg, and they returned together; were gone from one to two months etc. Nathaniel Hosmer.

May 3, 1833 Darwin Adams, Minister of the Congregational Society at Camden, Maine certified to the high standing of Captain Nathaniel Hosmer.

May 18, 1833 Anna Hodgman of Camden, Maine, wife of Job Hodgman, 72 years of age, testified that from the time she was two or three years old until her marriage, which occurred after the Revolution, she lived at Mason, New Hampshire; was an intimate friend of Flagg and his wife; saw letters he wrote her before and after the battle of Bunker Hill; that she knew Capt Mann very well and knows that he is now dead. Anna Hodgman.

Claim allowed and Certificate 18229, Maine Agency, was issued August 1, 1833, Act of June 7, 1832."

POSSIBLE ANCESTRY:

Descendants of Isaac FLAGG

"Genealogies of the Early Settlers of Watertown MA..." by Henry Bond 1860 has the FLAGG Family beginning on page 219. Previous researchers have proposed, since OUR Isaac named a son the unusual name of Adonijah, that [pg 222] Adonijah b 1713 of Waltham who md Mary Corey of Weston 1749, had a son Isaac 14 June 1749, but that Isaac is the one who fought from Weston in the Rev War [p224]. However, Adonijah also had a brother Isaac bap 28 Mar 1725 with no further info. It WOULD be natural if this Isaac had a son, our Isaac 1748, who named sons Isaac and Adonijah. With a name like Adonijah, it is highly likely that the two belong in the same branch.
If this proves out, ancestry would be Isaac 1725; John Flagg b 1677 md2 Sarah Hagar 1712; John Flagg 1643 md 1670 Mary Gale; Thomas Flagg-1 & Mary.

Isaac married Keziah (Juda?) RUSSELL, daughter of Jason RUSSELL and Elizabeth WINSHIP, 9 Dec 1772 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH. Keziah was born circa 1750 in Menotomy-Arlington, Middlesex, MA.

Isaac Flagg married Keziah RUSSELL on 9 Dec 1772 in Mason NH, by Rev Jonathan Searle of the Congregational church. Keziah's parents have not been determined, although we know she was born in Mason [? statement on Mason NH site]. Keziah seems to be the sister of Jason Russell-5 (Jason4 Hubbard3 Jason2 William1) 1742 Arlington - 1825 Mason NH; had ch in Mason, p15 of William Russell Family by Opel Louise Currier. Mason town records have another Russell marriage on the same page as Keziah, so likely a sister: Randall McDaniels married to Martha Russell, by Rev Jonathan Searle Dec 3, 1773. Also another obvious relation: Dec 1823 Mr Isaac Flagg Russell and Miss Tirza Kendall both of Mason.

Children from this marriage were:

- 2 F i. Hannah FLAGG was born circa 1774 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died 16 Jul 1842 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH.
- 3 M ii. Isaac FLAGG Jr was born 13 May 1778 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died 21 Feb 1856 in Belmont, Waldo, ME.
- F iii. Sally FLAGG was born in Mason, Hillsborough, NH.
- 4 M iv. Adonijah FLAGG was born in May 1783 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died 28 Dec 1857 in Rockland, Knox, ME.
- 5 F v. Polly /Mary FLAGG was born circa 1784 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died after 1830 in Union, Waldo, ME.

Second Generation (Children)

2. Hannah FLAGG (*Isaac*¹) was born circa 1774 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died 16 Jul 1842 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH.

Mason NH website. Russell connection makes it likely this is the correct Hannah who md Jonathan, especially since her son has her father's name.

Hannah married Jonathan RUSSELL, son of Jason RUSSELL and Elizabeth LOCKE, 21 Apr 1795 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH. Jonathan was born 8 Feb 1765 in Menotomy-Arlington, Middlesex, MA and died 24 Oct 1828 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH.

Children from this marriage were:

- M i. Jonathan RUSSELL was born in Mason, Hillsborough, NH.
- 6 M ii. Isaac Flagg RUSSELL was born in 1800 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died after 1870 in New Ipswich, Hillsborough, NH.

3. Isaac FLAGG Jr (*Isaac*¹) was born 13 May 1778 in Mason, Hillsborough, NH and died 21 Feb 1856 in Belmont, Waldo, ME.

Marriage record is on p504 of VR of Camden & Rockport, MGS 2006. Belmont was once known as Greene Plantation. History of Hope Maine by Anna Hardy p27 (notes from Mildred Flagg) says:

Isaac Flag Jr of Mason NH arrived very early in 1800. Though he signed the 1804 petition Flag, his descendants use the more common spelling Flagg. (This petition of 1804 was for a change in town lines and a change in name from Barretstown to Hope.) In 1820 his parents were living with him.

P 331, Family Register #1 says Isaac Flagg Junr born in Mason NH May 13, 1778. Also includes wife and dau.

Robinson's History of Camden & Rockport ME says "in 1811 Isaac Flagg was one of the minor officers selected that year." Parts of the town of Hope used to be part of Camden. Hope was once known as Barretts Town, and was settled by people from New Ipswich and Mason NH, who had come from Concord MA.

Isaac Flagg Jr served in the War of 1812 as a Private in Capt James Weed's Co, Lt Col E Foote's regiment; Sept 3-9, 1814, Sept 21-23, 1814, and Nov 2-7, 1814, Raised at Hope, Service at Camden.

Isaac Jr and Nancy are buried in Belmont at their farm. Mildred Coathup (Mrs Thomas Flagg) told me 1982 she could still walk up the remains of the road to find the burned out farmhouse and the cemetery stones, but the woods had nearly reclaimed everything. The graveyard is on the remains of VanSickle Road, 250 paces past where the road ends 2010, then up a path through the rock wall about 200 feet. 2010 Isaac's stone is broken and disintegrating, but Nancy's is still fine. Nancy's stone says, Nancy [in reverse highlight] wife of Isaac Flagg, DIED Mar 6, 1867, AE 81 yrs. 9 mos. & 8 ds. Mother we love thee still. Leaning against a tree 2010.

Descendants of Isaac FLAGG

Isaac was one of the first settlers of Belmont, before 1830. See Lincolnville Hist Soc Vol III Part II.

Mildred Flagg wrote to me March 2, 1982, from family stories carried down, that, "Isaac and Nancy were living in a part of Camden which is now Hope, in 1811 and moved to Belmont prior to 1830 where he built a house on the Flagg Road between Tunk Woods Road and Hall's Corner [now VanSickle Rd]. This road is now impassable. The old house burned several years ago. We went there some 20 years ago and located the old cemetery in one corner of the field; also located the remains of the old cooper shop at the side of the road where Ebenezer made barrels that he hauled to Rockland to the lime kilns. Isaac and Nancy, Ebenezer, and Micah's son are buried at the farm, also two of Ebenezer's children who died in 1849 in a cholera epidemic. Jane and husband are buried in Hillside Cemetery Rt 3 Belmont." 2012: Mildred says facing where the house was, the shop was to the left. There was also a 40' deep well on the property which may still be there and open somewhere. Walking from Halls Corner direction, you come to the cemetery first, then the cooper shop where you may see some of the brick foundation, then the house which would be back in the woods some. The well was near the road.

I owe a deep gratitude to Isabel Morse Maresh, who compiled the 712-page 8x11 book, "Belmont, Maine - The First Hundred Years" 2002, which actually covers more than that. Belmont town records burned along with other towns in the 1855 Great Fire, so she compiled these from cemeteries, newspaper reports, family records, and anything else she could find. The town was first called Green Plantation, and also included the town of Morrill.

Isaac married Nancy THOMPSON, daughter of Ebenezer THOMPSON and Mary GORDON, 29 Oct 1804 in Camden, Lincoln, ME. Nancy was born 29 May 1785 in Thomaston, Lincoln, ME and died 6 Mar 1867 in Belmont, Waldo, ME.

History of Hope p27 family register gives Nancy's b-date as 29 May 1785; gravestone said 29 May 1786. Child Selena also listed. Mildred Flagg says Nancy was born in the West Meadows district of Thomaston, and moved to Hope with her parents in 1803; and were both of Hope at marriage.

Page 104 of The History of Camden and Rockport by Robinson:

On Nov. 7 [1796] a town meeting was called "at the School House Near Negunticook harbor", to see about building a meetinghouse, at which meeting it was voted "to Build a Meeting House at the crotch of the Road on Mr. Isaac Harrinton's land, Provided that said Land is given to the Town." It seems, however, that this meeting-house was never built, the project having failed, either because the land was not given or for some other cause.

Page 141: This year Major Joseph Pierce, before mentioned as being clerk of the "Twenty Associates," and to whom the said Associates had conveyed large tract of land in Camden in consideration of his "faithful services," came here to reside. Several years before Mr. Isaac Harrington had started to build what was known during the first half of the nineteenth century as the "old Mansion House," but before it was completed it passed into the hands of Major Pierce and was used by him as a residence while he remained in Camden. Major Pierce proved not to be so "faithful" to his employers in the end, for getting badly involved in debt and having illegally speculated in the lands of the "twenty Associates," he decamped from Boston about the year 1816, for parts unknown, taking with him the records of the Company and thereby causing much vexation and trouble both to the "Associates" and some of the settlers on their land, relative to the titles of the same. The "Mansion House" remained one of the landmarks of the town until 1852, when it was destroyed by fire. It was located on the hill on the southerly side of Elm Street, upon land now owned by Mrs. Ada B. Tremaine.

This Republican Journal (Belfast ME) article of 1898, was also reprinted in the RJ on 4-4-2002 by Isabel Morse Maresh in her Center Belmont article. She says this "was sent to me by [Flagg descendant] June Tower McCormick. It is about another successful Belmont native who went West to make his fortune. I quote the original:

"Jacob R. Flagg - A Waldo County Man who has been a Successful Miner in California.

The Siskiyou News, of Yreba, California, in its issue of Jan 9th [1898] gives some interesting reminiscences from the early history of California, with special reference to the business interests of Trinity county and biographical sketches of the men who are developing them. Of course the Maine man who came to the front there, as elsewhere. The News says:

A write-up of Trinity county and her prominent mines and citizens would not be complete unless in mentioning the advantages of mining investments in this community a brief mention is made of some honest, reputable and experienced miner who is respected in the county and whose word may be relied upon. Such a person is J. R. Flagg.

Jacob Redding Flagg is the second son of Eben and Hepsybeth (Higgins) Flagg, and was born near Belfast, Maine on January 28, 1838. His father was a farmer and cooper. J. R. Flagg attended school until he was about sixteen years old. School was in session in that district at that time about three months every year. During the long vacations, young Flagg was engaged in farming and in learning the cooperage trade. At the age of 17 he became so proficient that he was foreman of a cooper shop in the city of Belfast. This business he continued until he started for California. He left Belfast on December 13th and went to New York. From here he sailed to Havana, Cuba, on the Philadelphia. He went to Aspinwall on the steamer Grenada. From Aspinwall to Panama he traveled via the railroad. Thence to San Francisco was via the Golden Gate. He arrived in San Francisco on the 13th of January, just one month after he left home. At this time his entire capital was five dollars, which amount he expended in securing a deck passage to Stockton. Arriving, he secured a job chopping wood about two miles from town for $30 per month, which employment lasted two months. A dairy was conducted by his employers, and milkers were paid $40 per month. Being ambitious, Mr Flagg applied for and received a job as a milker. He had at home, been used to five or six cows, but here he was required to attend to twenty. He was required to get up at 3 o'clock in the morning and work until 8 o'clock in the evening, then supper was had.

It was only a short time until he was more than willing to accept a wood-chopping job, if it were offered, even if the pay was only $15 per month. At the end of a month of dairy work, he received a letter offering him a job at $3.50 per day at Timbuctoo, Yuba county, on what is probably the first mine in the State. He worked on the Allenwood mine for a month or six weeks and then purchased an eighth interest for $800. He paid $175 down and the balance was paid as his wages would admit. At the end of a year he had his interest entirely paid and could have sold his share for $5000. Six months after this, and after losing his claim, he was $350 in debt. The claim was mortgaged and he did not know it. It was sold. He borrowed $150 from a friend and went to Nevada county in April 1860. Here he bought a mine for $300, paying $120 down and securing a year's time on the balance. At the same time he went piping on the East and West mine on Brown's hill, at which work he continued for three years. Then he fitted up his own mine and began to work it on a small scale. He paid $300 per month for water. His first clean up showed a profit of $10 per day. The fourth and last clean-up was just about enough to pay for the water, hence he closed down the mine. After disposing of his pipe he went to Nevada, where there was a great silver excitement. He went to Aurora, Esmeralda county, and with others ran a prospect tunnel on one of the tributaries of the Walker river. He here spent $1000 and two years time and did not make anything. He returned to Nevada county and went to work on the East and West mine as a common laborer for a week or two. Then for three months he was foreman of Judge Brown's mine in Wilcox ravine. From this he took charge as superintendent of the Williams mine which adjoins the East and West mine. About six months afterwards an English company purchased the East and West and the Williams mine and made Mr Flagg superintendent of both properties. He remained there for eight years, until 1876.

His first work was as a common laborer on the Ward mine, now the famous La Grange. In two weeks his worth and judgement were recognized and he was made foreman, which position he held for eight years. Then he went to Junction City and took charge of the Hayes, later the Benjamin, now part of the Cie F'se property. He arranged all the pipe lines and laid out all the plans for opening and equipping the mine. Although this is now and has been one of the best mines in California, not one detail of Mr Flagg's plan have ever been altered. From Junction City Mr Flagg went to San Jose, Santa Clara county, where he was engaged in pipe work for the water company. He became dissatisfied with the country there, and as he was enjoying poor health he returned to Trinity county. He worked at the Hayes mine for three months as a carpenter. Then he went to Taylor's Flat as foreman of the Trinity and Tunnel Gold Mining Co., composed of Gov Perkins, Captain Griffith and the Randalls of Berkeley drug store, San Francisco. After two months' work his worth was again recognized and he was made superintendent for two seasons or until the mine closed down. He then stayed in Weaverville for six or eight months when he accepted the position of superintendent of the Hubbard mine at Douglas City, where he remained for two years. He then returned to Junction City, where he was piper for three months on the Cie F'se property. On the first of May he was appointed foreman under E. Saladin and this position he retained until the first of June. In every position he ever occupied he gave entire satisfaction and secured the respect of his employers because of his intelligent, capable and practical way of operating a gravel mine.

Amasa's wife Fidelia (1848-1901), daughters Lucinda (Cunningham) (1867-1889), Jennie Alice (Trelor) (1877-1903) and son Robert (1868-1914) joined Amasa from Maine about 1880. Another son William (1884-1908) was later born in Junction City. Amasa's family was dead by the time he died an elderly man in his cabin off of Brannon Street in Weaverville, CA. Amasa's grave alongside his family is currently unmarked in the Weaverville Cemetary. It is believed that his brother Eben etched a rock marker for his brother and also prepared one for himself. While Eben's was salvaged, Amasa's has disappeared from the cemetary. [?? "Fidelia wife of A A" is on an old Flagg monument. He should be there too.]

Isaac & Mary are buried Hillside Cem, Rt 3 Belmont, large marble monument with full dates.

Isaac was born at the farm in Belmont. He was a farmer, blacksmith, and constable. After he md 2nd, he lived at Clark's Corner in Lincolnville at the corner of Slab City Road and Rt 52. He died of stomach cancer.

Isaac Flagg willed the old family farm to his youngest daughter and her family of 12 children. They tore the barn down board by board for firewood instead of cutting trees. The farm has since been sold a couple times and is now owned by a man who is keeping the land in a wild state and not developing it. The house burned before he bought the land. The hay fields are no more; they're all grown up to elder bushes. Two other places along the same side of the road, the Van Sickle place and the Dell Thorndike place are also abandoned, grown up and fallen in. On the other side of the road were the places of Marcellus Flagg, Briggs, Moore, Jackson, Richards, and Wellman, all grown up to woods. I wonder if there aren't little family cemeteries there as well as at the Flagg farm. Even this road is just a jeep track now. - Sept 1989 letter from Mildred Flagg.

2013 - this area is now totally thick woods with hardly a sign humans were ever there. The road is now a path to walk.

Transcript of his obituary in The Pittsfield Advertiser, June 5 1913. "The death of Roland E Rhoades occurred at 6:15 A.M. Monday at his home on North Main street after an illness of about a week. Mr Rhoades, who was a jeweler, was well known in this section of the state, having been in business at various times in Pittsfield. He was considered something of a genius, and had invented several articles, some of them having been sold for a good sum. He leaves a wife, a small son, a daughter by a former marriage, and one brother, John Rhoades of this town. His age was 45 years. Funeral services were held at his home at 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, Rev F.S. Walker officiating. Interment was made at the village cemetery."

Roland and son Ivan are both buried in Pittsfield Village Cemetery, but it appears there is no stone and no record and that the cemetery buried someone else on top of him. Daughter Irma in Pittsfield tried resolving the question with no luck in the 1950s. Rev Frederick S Walker was a Universalist minister, at Pittsfield Universalist 1908-1915, and later at Waterville 1925-1928. Roland and his family worked in textile shops in his early years. Roland's first patent for which we find a record was filed Jan 9 1891 when Roland was age 24 and granted Jan 26 1892. It was for an improvement upon the loom.

Roland Eaton Rhoades was named after Roland L Eaton (1835-1870), son of the Rhoades family's good friends and cousins by marriage, Joseph Eaton (1800-1865) and Mary A (1809-1868). The Eatons are all in Fort Hill Cemetery in Winslow.

April 1910 Belfast Ward 2 census lists Roland E Rhodes 41 div rents at 71 1/2 High St and is a jeweler, repair work, working on own account. Not found 1900.

Roland is listed in The Maine State Directory & Gazetteer 1893, p 282, and 1894 p 333, and 1895 p311 on Main St in Pittsfield, under Jewelry, Watches, etc. 1898 Worcester MA p411 has a Roland E Rhoades, loomsetter, 123 Tainter, bds. 32 Grand. 1907 Worcester p592 has a Roland E Rhoades, rem'd from city.

Annie L Rhoades divorced Roland E Rhoades for "gross and confirmed habits of intoxication", granted 14 Jan 1899. Damages $25. Annie m2 Howard Jacobs 24 Dec 1901 Pittsfield.

1902 M/C: Both of Pittsfield. Lillie is the dau of Orine R Soule & Eliza Spaulding, both of/b Palmyra. She m1 Mr Crosby. Lillie is divorced in 1902 age 30, md by J W Webster in Newport. Roland was 35 div jeweler, father b Fairfield, mother b Winslow. 1920 Pittsfield census lists Orin L Soule 77 & Eliza 75. 1900 Palmyra census lists Orin March 1842, Elizabeth Jan 1845 md 26y, 4-3ch, Orin A Crosby grandson Apr 1889. Orin Soule was the son of Rufus, a Mayflower descendant. L Mae Rhoades sued Roland E Rhoades for divorce in Kennebec Co court, for desertion, vol X-p23, granted 29 Sept 1910. Divorce record says they were married 8 Jan 1900, but m/c says 8 June 1902 in Newport. Found no further mar or death rec for Lillie, under any last name. The Soule family is buried in Spring Hill Cem in Palmyra, with Lillian's name on the monument with no death date. Orin L 1846-1920; Eliza J 1844-1925.

Family legend, as told by his wife Grace who lived until 1966, says that Roland was friends with Thomas Alva Edison, and that's why his son's middle name is Edison. Roland was a jeweler who worked on clocks. Grace Flagg was a schoolgirl, 27 years younger than him, who walked home past his jewelers shop in Belfast. They fell in love despite the age difference and got married. Grace also said that he was an alcoholic (also proven in the divorce record of his first wife), and had blinding migraine headaches. A family story passed down is that she being still a girl and not knowing better, as a tidy person, she emptied the little bit of rat poison left over into an old aspirin bottle to make more room. During his headaches, Roland would blindly reach into the medicine cabinet and feel around for the aspirin bottle and mistakenly took the rat poison which killed him. Grace remarried three more times.

Genetic tree: brown hair, balding; alcoholism; acute gastritis from protracted dizziness and drinking.

92. Thomas Eben FLAGG (*Walter Francis*⁵, *Isaac Alden "Ike"*⁴, *Ebenezer "Eben"*³, *Isaac Jr*², *Isaac*¹) was born 24 Jul 1918 in Belfast, Waldo, ME and died 19 Jun 2009 in Lincolnville Beach, Waldo, ME.

Lincolnville Beach - Thomas Eben Flagg, 90, died Friday June 19, 2009, at his home. Born July 24, 1918 in Belfast, he was the son of Walter F and Nellie (Young) Flagg.

His mother died of typhoid fever when he was four weeks old and he was raised by his aunt, Elizabeth (Flagg) Pendleton in Lincolnville Beach. On July 22, 1944, Tom married Mildred Louise Coathup in Belfast. They lived in Lincolnville where they raised their four children. In his younger years, Tom was an accomplished blacksmith and farrier. He later worked in construction for various contractors and for the Maine State Department of Transportation doing road work and snow plowing for 20 years. Tom was a descendant of Mayflower Pilgrims William Brewster, Stephen Hopkins, Thomas Rogers and son Joseph, William Mullins, and John Alden.

Surviving are his wife Mildred of 64 years, three daughters Ellen Garneau (John) of Meredith NH, Doris Weed (Ken) of Lincolnville, and Jane Jipson (Dana) of Saco; 5 grandsons Kenneth Weed Jr, Steven Weed, Derek Welch, Craig Welch, Trent Welch; 11 g-gch. He was predeceased by his son Thomas Jr in Oct 2002, and three sisters Doris Flagg, Mary Blood, and Avis McDonald.

Local paper added: Tom Flagg, one of Lincolnville's oldest residents, died at home. Friends of Tom's were in the habit of glancing over at his house on the hill every morning to make sure smoke was coming out of the chimney as it did almost every day of the year; that meant Tom was sitting in his rocker by the window watching over Lincolnville Beach.

The 3 girls inherited the farm on the hill across from the beach; Ellen & Jane kept it.

Long Funeral Home, Camden. Burial: Red granite monument in Hillside Cem, Rt 3, Belmont.

Curran Homestead website <http://www.curranhomestead.org/page32.php> has a writeup and photos:

Located off Atlantic Highway just a stone's throw from the place known as Duck Trap, this Lincolnville Beach farm of just over 40 acres has been in the same family since the time of a King's Grant from which this parcel was long ago divided. With the death of Thomas Flagg in 2009, the farm has continued in the family line with Jane Flagg Jipson following the precedent of ownership on both maternal and paternal sides of the family for a period of more than two hundred years.

In 2010 the Curran Homestead constructed an onsite blacksmith shop. Among the first students of this fledgling blacksmithing school was Dana Jipson, husband to Jane Flagg Jipson. Dana and Jane Jipson were in the process of moving from Saco, Maine retiring to the family farm that Jane had grown up on in Lincolnville Beach after the death of her father Thomas Eben Flagg in 2009. Thomas Flagg had maintained a blacksmithing shop on his farm for much of his adult life and had long hung a sign at the road's edge as claiming his services as a "blacksmith." Amongst the later donation from the farm to the Curran Homestead were many examples of not only Thomas' work but his grandfather Isaac's, including the iron handles of a large wooden bin which held potatoes. Very much interested in blacksmithing, Dana Jipson had wished to learn to use the forge and tools that stood idle since his father-in-law's death. Dana learned of the classes that were being offered at the Curran Homestead and signed up. Shortly after finishing the ten week beginning blacksmithing classes and becoming acquainted with the organization's mission, Dana contacted us and wished us to meet with his wife Jane who was interested in donating some tools and equipment from her father's farm.

The Flagg Farm donation was sizeable, and it involved numerous trips between Orrington and Lincolnville Beach. Jane and her sisters Dolores and Eleanor saw the donations as an opportunity for their father's well maintained tools and equipment to both remain in the State of Maine as well as continue to be maintained and utilized for the purposes of farming as it is the mission of the Curran Homestead to not only continue to use much of these items but to use them for the hands-on education of farming practices for succeeding generations. Like many Maine farms of relatively small size the Flagg Farm under Thomas Flagg's stewardship continued farm methods that had long disappeared from much of the rest of the American landscape. Horse drawn implements were a fixture of Jane Flagg Jipson's childhood and early adulthood on the farm that looks over the Atlantic; During the process of moving many of these donations, much time was spent around the farmhouse kitchen table sharing memories. Jane's father's favorite work horse "Colonel" was one topic of these memories and among the most relished by representatives of the Curran Homestead. Jane shared her family's photos spanning more than a hundred years on the farm site passing on the stories behind each much as Thomas Flagg himself often liked to do with family members and guests.

The Flagg Donation is far more valuable than the tangible tools and equipment transported to the museum site, for unlike previous donations, this gift can be characterized as a complete archive that includes both a thorough narrative shared by family members about the history of their farm and details about the use of specific tools and a photos that document many of these objects in use in the field. We hope that these photos and narratives will serve those interested in understanding a little bit more about rural life particular to eastern Maine's heritage.

Thomas married Mildred Louise COATHUP, daughter of William John COATHUP and Ethel Louise FULLER, 22 Jul 1944 in Lincolnville, Waldo, ME. Mildred was born 1 Mar 1925 in Norfolk, Norfolk, MA and died 4 Jun 2015 in Belfast, Waldo, ME.

Y-DNA testing at FTDNA, corroborated by testing a cousin's Y and autosomal, determines that Grace's husband Roland Rhoades was not the father, a Mr Peavey was. Family photo comparisons of facial features helps to confirm. Further research now takes this line back, and getting dna matches and family photos from this family to confirm the match.

In the spring of 1954 the family, Roland, Marion, dau Lynda and son Roland and family all moved to Phoenix AZ where Ed Boudway said there were jobs. They lasted 3 months before homesickness got them and they moved back to Maine where all their friends and family were. An old photo album says they left Maine April 5 and arrived in Phoenix April 11; they left Phoenix July 22 and got home July 28, 1954. They lived at 3112 E Diamond St. The address on Google Earth in 2012 looks unrecognizable.

Roland and Marion are buried at Maine Avenue Cemetery, Farmingdale ME. Marion's memorial and story is at www.RolandRhoades.com/nana.htm. Roland was a member of the Pipefitters Union, traveling to many places for work. Being a union member, the family has always been strongly Democratic politically. Worked at Bath Iron Works, and helped build the St Lawrence Seaway in NY in the 1950s or 1960s. While at BIW, someone came up to him and said I think I know your sister. He replied, I don't have a sister. This was when he first learned that he did have a half-sister via his father's first marriage, Irma Rhoades Wall Butler. She visited and a group family photo is on my Rhoades family webpage. Roland Sr died when he was less than 2 years old. Roland was named after Thomas Edison because his father had worked with and thought highly of him. Roland was also a member of the Freemasons, though I don't recall him ever mentioning it; The Maine Mason magazine just kept coming in the mail. He loved to eat and would have spaghetti eating contests with the Boudway side of the family (Butch Nuzzo). He and Marion bought their house at 133 Northern Avenue Farmingdale [83 after 911 change] around 1933 and lived there their whole lives, until Marion sold it in 2003.

My grandfather Roland in a 1990 tape said that he went back and forth from his mother's to his grandmother's and Uncle John's homes (Flagg side). Quit school at 14 to work. Lots of different schools. Remembers an Uncle Lent, and an Uncle Eanus who carved stuff, even wooden chains.

MAINE SOCIAL section of Kennebec Journal: Rhodes-Boudway Gardiner, Dec 16 - Miss Marion Boudway and Roland Rhodes, both of this city, were married in Hallowell by Rev Nutter Saturday evening at 7:15. They were attended by the bride's father Frank Boudway, and Mr Rhodes' mother. Intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom were present at the ceremony. The newlyweds will live at 117 Northern Avenue, with Mrs Boudway's father.

Genetic tree: 5'2 1/2"; wt 130-150; brown hair/eyes; asthma, allergies, arthritis, bad back; cataracts. She loved chocolate, but was allergic. Her son Roland took a 23&Me DNA test which identifies his maternal Mtdna line as U2e, which is therefore also Marion's through Peterson, Gross, Borjesson. Her daughter Lynda took the Full Mtdna test at FTDNA, and was determined to be U2e2a1a. Haplogroup U2 arose in the Near East about 45,000 years ago. U2e is one of the oldest haplogroups in Europe. It appears to have reached there with some of the continent's first modern human settlers about 35,000 years ago, at a time when Neanderthals were the only Europeans. By the time of the Neanderthals' extinction about 28,000 years ago, haplogroup U2e was probably distributed across much of Europe. But today, thanks to the subsequent arrival of many other haplogroups, it has become relatively rare. U2e reaches its highest levels in places like the town of Murlo, where many inhabitants are thought to be descended from the pre-Roman Etruscan people. It is also relatively common among the Udmurts and Mordvinians, who live in the Volga River drainage and Ural Mountain regions.

132. Clayton Milo BLOOD (*Mary Ella Young FLAGG*⁶, *Walter Francis*⁵, *Isaac Alden "Ike"*⁴, *Ebenezer "Eben"*³, *Isaac Jr*², *Isaac*¹) was born 14 Dec 1931 in Morrill, Waldo, ME and died 7 Jul 2022 in Searsport, Waldo, ME.

Clayton Milo Blood, Sr. died at his home in Searsport on July 7, 2022, supported by his family and hospice. Just last December, he celebrated his 90th birthday. He received over 200 cards and emails and he declared that he had truly led a blessed life.

Clayton had four passions that ran throughout his life. The first was his family. He declared how fortunate he was to have had Barbara, the love of his life, as his wife for 65 years. He derived a lot of joy from his family and he also took his responsibilities seriously. Part of his daily life was checking in on his parents. Growing up, his family instilled in him the importance of eating together as a family, and he continued that tradition with his own children. One tradition that Clayton loved was that his family always hugged each other and said, "I love you." In the last year of his life, he wrote in his autobiography, "I can't think of anything else in today's society that is more important than family."

The second passion was sports. He played both baseball and basketball in school and played in summer leagues. He loved coaching baseball, and still kept in contact with some of his players. Many hours were spent watching his son play, and later cheering on his grandsons, Matthew and Benjamin's basketball and baseball games. A supporter for the UMO baseball team, Clayton found sponsors and recruited local students. He was an ardent fan of the Celtics and Red Sox. Besides cheering for his teams, he loved to analyze the coaching and discuss what he would have done.

The third passion was gardening. With his background in agriculture, he was very knowledgeable and was an avid gardener. He loved giving vegetables away and sharing his love of gardening with his grandchildren and great grandchildren. Michaela was responsible for keeping the rhubarb patch weeded. Brianna, Carter, and Camden loved riding the 4 wheeler through the garden with Gramp, following in the footsteps of Matt, Ben, Jenna and Cameron, He was very proud of growing and making over 100 jars of pickles and relish one year.

The fourth passion was making a difference. When he became aware of a need, he did not hesitate to organize and lead a fund raiser or support group. As an educator, he was drawn to the student who needed something to motivate them or support them. He didn't hesitate to bend the rules to to help someone out. Adult education appealed to him so much as he saw it as a way to help people.

Clayton was born to Mary and Milo Blood on December 14, 1931. The eldest child, his family included brothers Roy, Maurice, Stanley and his sister, Carol. After moving from Belmont, most of his early life was spent on the family farm in Unity, Maine. Being part of a close-knit loving family and working hard on the farm shaped his whole life. Starting at the age of nine, he helped by milking cows, taking care of calves, cutting ice, logging with horses and cutting firewood, haying, and growing crops for sale. He does remember growing and picking strawberries and then selling them for ten cents a quart. It was not all work on the farm, as he played baseball with a ball made of twine, and his dad made a basketball for him from a pig's bladder. They set a peach basket on a tree for the hoop. He often said that it was the best kind of upbringing that anyone could have. He learned the value of hard work, responsibility and helping others.

Even though Unity high school was small, he didn't meet his future wife, Barbara Myrick, until they competed for the school champion in ping pong. He lost gracefully, and they started dating. They both excelled in sports, and sports remained important throughout his life. Barbara was the love of his life.

One of his teachers applied for a scholarship for him through the Sears and Roebuck catalog. He was awarded $100 and that allowed him to attend the University of Maine. When he told that story, he always stressed about how one person can make a great difference in the life of another person. Clayton began his teaching career in 1953, as an agriculture teacher, basketball coach and administrator at Bucksport High School.

Descendants of Isaac FLAGG

After a brief stint serving as an insurance manager in New Hampshire, he returned to teaching in Searsport. He also served as an administrator, athletic director and baseball coach. He was very proud coaching his team to win the state class C baseball championship in 1972. Many of his baseball players are still in touch with him. Every spring he would take Matthew and Ben to American legion games and later to UMO baseball games.

While at Searsport, he became very involved in adult education. It all began when a local company asked him if he could provide some math classes for their employees. That was successful, so the plan was revised to help many of the employees earn their high school diploma or equivalent. He then set up and oversaw programs at Mt. View, Belfast, and Searsport. That led him to work for the Maine Department of Education as the state consultant for the GED program. He was very proud of developing training programs for businesses and he personally signed over 36,000 diplomas. He helped develop the test for the GED and took classes directly to businesses' so workers didn't have to travel or leave work to acquire a GED. He received a number of awards for his accomplishments. He felt very strongly that the adults who had worked so hard to earn their diplomas or GED's deserved to be recognized and celebrate their success. He traveled throughout the state speaking at many of the adult graduations. If they cried tears of joy, so did he.

Clayton and Barbara began their life together in a small trailer parked at UMO. Their daughter Jennifer was born and they moved to Bucksport where they had two more children: Babette and Clayton Jr. After Bucksport, they moved to New Hampshire where he served as a regional insurance manager for a few years. He missed teaching so they returned to Maine and settled in Searsport, where they lived for 60 years. They joined and were active in the Searsport Congregational church. Clayton was a life long deacon and enjoyed planning and working on many fund-raising suppers. Fish chowder was one of his specialties. In the last few years they attended the Brooks Congregational Church where they gained more friends. A lot of their activities revolved around the school, but their favorite activity was to go dancing. Going to the Red Barn with a group of friends was something they looked forward to.

Throughout the years, Clayton remained close to his parents and siblings. The extended family always got together for holiday meals. A family camp, "the cottage," on St. George Lake in Liberty was the perfect spot for swimming, boating and fishing. He caught a 9 pound 5 ounce salmon in St. George lake with a grey ghost streamer. Clayton taught all of his children to fish and gave tips to his grandsons and great grandsons. Clayton loved spending time at the hunting camp on Frye Mountain. It was a special place for Clayton, his brothers, father, and friends. Elaborate hunter breakfasts were expected and Clayton was often the cook.

Their children were the source of much pride and joy. When they married and had children that joy became even greater. Jennifer married Pat Garrett and had daughters, Michaela and Brianna. Babette married Derwin White and had sons, Matthew and Benjamin. Clayton Jr. married Kim Moores and had Jenna and Cameron. Their family continued to grow as Matt married Avery Barrett and had children, Carter, Camden and Peyton. Ben married Brittany Brewer. Jenna married Todd Biehne and had children, Tripp and Iris. Cameron is now engaged to Calla. The house is full of photos of all of the family, especially grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Clayton married Barbara Ethel MYRICK, daughter of Lloyd Warren MYRICK and Ruth Erdine BAGLEY, 31 Jan 1952 in Unity, Waldo, ME. Barbara was born 10 Nov 1931 in Troy, Waldo, ME and died 18 Jun 2020 in Belfast, Waldo, ME.

Her parents also b Troy. 1953 res Orono; 1954 res Bucksport, Clayton an agricultural teacher.

BELFAST - Barbara Myrick Blood lived a full, healthy, and joyful life until her ultimate struggle with dementia. On June 18, 2020, she died peacefully in her sleep at the age of 88. Barbara was loving and generous to everyone. Above all, she was a caretaker. In fact, her children remember a time in the winter, when she took a coat out of her car and gave it to a stranger in need. She left college to care for her ailing mother and to watch over her siblings.

She was a traditional homemaker while her children were young. As a talented seamstress, she sewed beautiful clothes for her daughters, Jennifer and Babette. Her talents extended to making curtains, aprons for her mother-in-law and doll clothes. There were always homemade cookies and bread in the house. Barbara shared her love of the ocean with her children; picnics at the beach, looking for shells, swimming, and skipping rocks. They ice skated, rode bikes and made play houses from appliance boxes. Later in life, she cared for her father as he battled cancer. As a deacon in the Congregational Church in Searsport, she delivered roses, a card, and a friendly visit to anyone from the church who was ill or needed support.

She was a talented musician, playing piano, violin, and autoharp. She had a beautiful voice and served as a member of the Searsport Congregational Church choir for 50 years. With music and singing in the home, her children learned the verses to many hymns, gospel, and popular music.

Teaching adults to read, was a source of great pride for Barbara. She came by it naturally, as her mother and both her grandmothers were teachers. She ended up marrying a teacher and all 3 of her children became teachers. She had a lot of patience as she helped her adult students get their driver's license or GED. It took a special person to help give adults the confidence they needed to keep trying.

Barbara was born in Troy on November 10, 1931, and was the daughter of Lloyd and Ruth Bagley Myrick. She was an adventurous child, and loved climbing trees. She would even climb to the top of her grandfather's barn and walk along the ridge. She attended Unity High School where she excelled in sports. It was there that she met the love of her life, Clayton Blood. After attending Farmington State Teacher's College, Barbara and Clayton were married on January 30, 1952. They were blessed with 3 children: Jennifer, Babette, and Clayton Jr. With their spouses; Pat Garrett, Derwin White, and Kim Moores, they created their own families, bringing even more joy.

Barbara and Clayton loved being grandparents to Jennifer and Pat's girls: Michaela and Brianna; Babette and Derwin's boys:

Descendants of Isaac FLAGG

Matthew and Benjamin, and Clayton Jr. and Kim's children: Jenna and Cameron. Their family continued to expand as Matt married Avery, Ben married Brittany, and Jenna married Todd. Their joy grew as they became great grandparents to Matt and Avery's boys, Carter and Camden; and to Jenna and Todd's children: Tripp and Iris.

Barbara and Clayton both profess to have married the love of their lives. They were blessed to have celebrated their 68th anniversary. Partners in everything, Clayton became her caretaker, so that she could remain at home until the end of her life.

Roland attended Farmingdale and Gardiner schools, graduating from Gardiner High School in 1947. Served in the US Army Air Corps, in charge of sled dogs in Labrador. In many circles, he was known as "Dusty" as in "dusty roads". He moved to Dover NH in 1955 and East Rochester NH in 1959. He worked at GE in Somersworth NH for 11 years. He was a licensed electrician, carpenter and general contractor, a co-owner of a couple companies. He and Muriel were also owners of Hilltop Recreation Center in Somersworth NH, which he built from the ground up in the 1960s to include a golf driving range, go-karts, baseball and softball batting cages, and "Space Age" miniature golf. That was a major news attraction; each hole had a giant theme, like a flying saucer large enough to walk through, that airplane pilots said they used as a bearing for landing at the Rochester airport. It also had space creatures and planets made from steel, chicken wire and mortar. His children always had summer jobs! He was also an Eagle Boy Scout, Order of the Arrow; Scoutmaster in Gardiner ME and Salmon Falls NH; Cubmaster in East Rochester; and served on the vestry as Jr and Sr Warden of the Episcopal Church in Rochester. He converted their summer camp in Sanford to year-round and moved from East Rochester in 1980. He sold his business and retired to Lakeland FL around 1985 in a retirement park where he has been President of the Shuffleboard Club, with many trophies. He and Muriel have led a very active life in the Florida warmth; it's hard to ever find them home. In January 2011, they sold their home in Lakeland and moved in with daughter Nancy in NH.
