First Generation

1. John MORGRAGE was born about 1648 in Chad, Somerset, England and died in Feb 1705/06 in Kittery, York, ME about age 58.

See LND - Libby, Noyes, & Davis Gen Dictionary of Maine & NH, Old Kittery & Her Families, Kittery VR, and The Morgrage-Morgridge Genealogy compiled by Rev Charles N Sinnett of Fertile MN, date unk but received by a library (Maine State?) 1 Jan 1925. Also, John Frost of Kittery knew in the 1980s that I was compiling all the Morgridges, so he compiled what he had from his research for me.

There are Mogridges in Gloucester, Essex, MA [CR2 West Parish, West Gloucester] also who just don't fit in, who seem to start with a John MOGRIDGE who md Lydia Davis 20 Sept 1722, making him too old to fit into the established family. I need to check to see if some were possibly unrecorded earlier sons of John or possibly a brother of John. Or maybe John Jr had an earlier marriage. John was 30 when he married Sarah Stevens, maybe he had an earlier family in the Boston area escaping the Indians in Maine. Also need to connect the Goffstown NH Morgrages. Also need to connect Peter Mograge of Castine ME, who may possibly descend from the Gloucester branch. I am sure they are all related. Land records may help. And DNA tests may help. Still have much more to record from my old notes, and the proliferation of VR and censuses now available online.

Stevens-Morgrage Genealogy sent to me by Robert Taylor 1986:

"If her own testimony is accurate, Sarah Stevens was born in 1661, the daughter of Thomas Stevens by his first wife. She was perhaps born before her father's arrival in New England. In 1678, when 17, she was married to John Morgrage.

He was born about 1648, probably in Somerset England where others of the Maine have been found (although there have been variant spellings of the name in Gloucester, Wilts, Surrey, and Sussex counties in England). Son William on his marriage record, referred to Chad Somersetshire England as the place of origin of his family. John was a brick layer in Kittery Maine. He is first found in York Maine where he was a witness in 1669. Two years later he was fine for "multiplying oaths". Before the Indian War of 1676, he lived on the west side of Spruce Creek. Fleeing to Boston, he took the Oath of Allegiance in April 1680. On February 20, 1682 he was baptized and joined the Boston Baptist Church. In July of the same year Sarah was also baptized and by September 1682 they had returned to Kittery where they were helping form a Baptist Church there. In 1695 Richard Cutt, calling John Morgrage his "friend", deeded to him the land he was living on, as well as the Endle property. From 1694 until 1699 he had a license to sell retail goods. On February 6, 1706, being apparently on his deathbed, John Morgrage made his will, naming his wife and children and leaving his son John the principle heir. The will was proved on March 15, 1706.

In 1706, Sarah (Stevens) Morgrage was selling drink; in 1707 she had a license to run a public house (as well as in 1709 and again in 1719). On April 12, 1733, she was living in Newberry Mass., age 72, and testified concerning her father's land.

John Morgrage of Kittery Maine

From Robert Taylor 1986, written by Robert Hanscom of Brunswick: "Mary Morgrage gave birth to a child about July 1707. Shortly afterward she accused Daniel Green of Kittery as being the father. As he was already married, he agreed to support the child, who went by the name of Green alias Morgrage in his early years. About 1709 Mary was married to Rowland Jenkins, a fisherman of New Castle New Hampshire. In July 1710, as Mary Jenkins, she was accused of committing adultery with John wife, a tinker of Kittery, "when believed aboard a ship in the harbor". 1712 she was accused of stealing ribbon. In 1715 both she and her husband were charged with stealing. Perhaps her life can be summed up with the testimony of Mrs. Catherine Weymouth of New Castle who said in 1714 she "never heard any good of her". Mary disappears from records entirely after 1715; perhaps she died about that time."

10-1-1707

11. Daniel Morgrage GREEN (*Mary MORGRAGE*², *John*¹) was born in Jul 1707 in Kittery, York, ME and died in 1745 in Louisburg, Canada at age 38.

See his will Maine Wills p 602-4.

From Robert Taylor 1986, written by Robert Hanscom of Brunswick (source of this list of ch and gch.):

"Daniel Green alias Morgrage, the illegitimate son of Mary Morgrage and Daniel Green of Kittery, apparently lived with his mother and stepfather when young but either because of their consistent misbehavior, or else because of his mother's death, he was apparently raised by his Morgrage relatives. In 1717 he was apprenticed out to Edmund Geach, a surveyor in Kittery, by his uncle John Morgrage in whose household he was living. After the death of that uncle in 1726, he apparently lived in the household of another uncle, William Morgrage in York Maine. Both enlisted in Capt. Preble's York Regiment in 1726.

Settling in Falmouth Maine where he was a surveyor by occupation, Daniel Green (no longer alias Morgrage) was married they are about 1731 to the beautiful and heroic Mary Bloom. Born in England in 1714, tradition has it that Mary came over to New England with her parents when she was 16. Following their marriage, Daniel and Mary apparently stayed in Falmouth where seven children were born to them.

In 1744 Daniel Green joined up with the militia of New England that led an expedition up to Louisburg Canada, one of the battles precipitating a full French and Indian War. Although the expedition was successful, Daniel Green did not survive it. He was killed by the Indians in 1745 near Louisburg.

His widow married second in Georgetown Maine on May 9, 1746 Ebenezer Hall, a fisherman from Pemaquid (and a widower with three daughters and one son). Shortly after they were married, Ebenezer and Mary settled on the tinnitus island, off the coast of Maine. Three more children were born to them, Peter, Phoebe, and Tabitha Hall. Living with them too, was Benjamin Morgrage, Daniel Green's cousin (son of his uncle John Morgrage) who apparently stayed with the family out of his devotion to his cousins widow (and perhaps because he was a fishing partner with Ebenezer Hall).

This long write up also details conflicts with the Indians and some of the family being taken captive including Mary, and Benjamin Morgrage. In 1765 Mary married Chipman Cobb; they removed to Gorham ME with Chipman died about 1796 age 87 and Mary died in 1803 age 89.

Daniel married Mary BLOOM in 1731. Mary was born in 1714 in England and died in 1803 in Gorham, Cumberland, ME at age 89.

Morgridge Cemetery on Upper Pond Road, Litchfield contains stones for both Elizabeths, and a Sarah A Chandler, wife of EG Chandler, died 2 May 1857, plus some unmarked stones. Litchfield VR p133 May 20 1816, pauper Robert Cleves was bid off to Thomas Morgridge for 25c/week. George Rogers, Historical Society of Litchfield, says "Thomas Morgridge lived on the Upper Pond Road where I live and where Elder Levi Rhodes lived. Thomas' house currently belongs to Ed Avis, a member of HSOL, and he has done a good job of restoring it. When I was a boy (I'm now seventy-five), the house was a wreck. After years of looking, Ed found the Morgridge cemetery down near the pond. (He had to probe, all the stones were flat and buried and some were broken.) We wondered for years in which church Thomas served as deacon. We eventually found that the Litchfield selectmen divided Litchfield into three religious districts in the early 1800's. Thomas Morgridge and John Brown (Levi Rhodes later purchased the Brown house) were deacons of the East Baptist district. They never did have a church building. My guess would be that Elder Levi Rhodes may have belonged to the Kendall Chapel on the Pond Road but I don't know. He was known for his belief that the world would end soon etc. He reportedly didn't harvest his crops one year because he felt the end was imminent. His daughter, Emma, married into the Small family and I'll check with the Small descendants to see if they know which church Levi attended. We have never been able to locate exactly where Charles Morgridge lived."

He also adds, I'm the genealogist with the Historical Society of Litchfield. According to the History of Litchfield, written in 1895 by Oliver Barrett Clason, Deacon Thomas Morgridge, an early settler, came to Litchfield from Harpswell. His father, William, reportedly came to Harpswell from England in 1755. Clason's work is usually very good, but I thought that I would check to see if you knew of any connection between your Kittery Morgrage family and the Litchfield Morgridge family. Also, an old farm near the Morgridge homestead was purchased in the early 1900's by my grandfather from Elder Levi Rhoades.

32. Charles MORGRIDGE (William³, William², John¹) was born in 1765 in South Harpswell, Cumberland, ME and died on 22 May 1842 in Sangerville, Piscataquis, ME at age 77.

Charles and Nancy are buried in Townhouse Cemetery, Townhouse Road in Sangerville, down in the far corner. MOCA record for Charles says 1766-1824, and the stone does say that. I believe the date was reversed on the stone engraving. I am going with what the Piscataquis Observer newspaper has: Morgridge, Charles, age 77 yr., died on Sunday morning last. Published Friday, May 27, 1842, making the death date Sunday, May 22, 1842. Likely just an engraver error that was never noticed or corrected; maybe Nancy got a 'deal' by accepting the stone as is, and figured oh well, I know the correct date.

The Historical Society of Litchfield says they have never been able to determine exactly where Charles lived in Litchfield. see brother Thomas writeup.

Mary Morgridge is a documented descendant of Mayflower Pilgrim Richard Warren. Son Hamlin's m cert in 1895 says father is deceased, but his mother resided in Waterville. Mary married Ralph Clinton LEAVITT, son of Joseph LEAVITT and Mary Ann Jane WALLS, on 2 Apr 1858 in Cambridge, Somerset, ME. Ralph was born on 18 Jul 1828 in Montville, Waldo, ME and died on 6 May 1894 in Cornville, Somerset, ME at age 65.

In 1850 Cambridge census, Ralph 22 was a sailor. Ralph was a lumberman later. Every notation includes only his middle initial of C. Feb 2009: Roland Rhoades uses circumstantial evidence to give him the name of Clinton. Reasons: The name Ralph itself is uncommon or non-existent in the Leavitt family before 1829. Martha Leavitt, the daughter of Ralph's half-brother William Henry Harrison Leavitt, names her son Ralph Clinton Twist in 1886. It sounds to me that there was contact between Joseph Leavitt's two families and that Martha had a fondness for her Uncle Ralph. Ralph named a son Joseph C. Leavitt; that C is also lost to history, but it could stand for Clifford. Where did this name "Clifford" come from and when? [see Joseph 1782 write-up]. Joseph C could also be Calvin after his grandfather Calvin Morgridge. Ralph's brother Joseph had a son Daniel who names children Ralph Clifford and Joseph Clinton. I believe the middle names were intentionally reversed to differentiate between the contemporaries. That still begs the question of where the names Ralph Clinton came from in 1828. I have not found any generals or other statesmen, for which Joseph was fond of naming his children. I believe Joseph named his son Joseph D after his distant cousin/uncle Daniel Leavitt b 1748. Ralph and Mary were married by Comfort Taylor, Minister of the Gospel at the Cambridge Baptist Church, aka Cambridge Union Meeting Hall. Ralph is buried in Mt Pleasant Cemetery in Cambridge ME halfway up the hill; empty spots on both sides of him. The lot was purchased by his son Joseph C Leavitt. Son Willy H is buried in the Cambridge Village Cemetery, now known as the Cambridge Memorial Garden Cemetery.

1870 Cambridge Census 32/33: Ralph C Leavitt 41 farmer $1500/1163, Mary A 28, Joseph C 11, Fred M 5. #88: Calvin Morgridge 53, Elonia P 51. 1880 Harmony, Som Census: Ralph Leavitt 50, Mary A 39, Fred 15, Hamlin 9, Elonia P Morgridge 61. 1880 Monson, Pisc: Joseph Leavitt 21, Ellura M 20, Sina 1. 1890 Waterville, Kenn Ward 5 Percival Court: LEAVITT, Fred M, 25; Hamlin 20; Mary 50; Nellie 20 [my note: Hamlin's wife]; MORGRIDGE, Elona 72.

Ralph died without an estate and separated from his wife, and working in Cornville, 3 towns SW of Cambridge. D/C says he was single with little info about him. However, in 1901 7 years after his death, a note turned up owing him money, which showed up in Somerset County Probate Court as File 1380, and solved a long mystery as to where Ralph's wife and children other than Joseph disappeared. It confirms Ralph's death date and that he last dwelt in Cornville. The record details the relationships as Mary A Leavitt widow of Salem, Mass, son Joseph C administrator of Waterville, and sons Fred M and Hamlin B both of Salem MA. The 1901 court filing explains "The occasion for this [late filing] is the recent discovery of a witnessed note dated November 10, 1884, in favor of the intestate for $133, on which no payments have been made. This note constitutes practically all the estate...". The court settlement shared $200 among the 4, with Mary getting a larger widows share of $66.67, and the 3 sons getting $44.44 each. Attorney Harvey Eaton also received $93.59 for his services: "Procuring administration and settling estate costs and services in suit v. Leonard Stone et al. Opposing claim of Leonard Stone costs and services in suit brought by Leonard Stone v Adm'r and Eaton trustee costs and services in 2nd suit brought by Stone v Adm'r". Case settled in 1907.

Note: Find that court case to see if it mentions anything about Violet [Ralph's sister Violet m Leonard Stone]. 6/07: Could not find any mention in Kennebec or Somerset Co courts.

Joseph is always referred to as simply Joseph C, the middle name lost to history. The C could stand for Clifford or Calvin or Clinton, maybe it was just plain C, so it could stand for any of them; see notes under his father. None of the names is carried on in subsequent generations. I believe his full name is most likely named Joseph Calvin, after both of his parents' fathers. The entire family of Joseph, Ellura, Sina, Chester, Ulrich, Edith and husband William are all buried in the family plot at Pine Grove Cemetery in Waterville, Lot 548. Have photos of stones, and photos of people except Chester and Ulrich. November 2008, Pine Grove Cemetery told us their records state that Chester was reinterred in 1903 from Cambridge Maine. They also said that Ulrich Leavitt is buried there in "plot #4", though without any marker. No living family members had known anything about it. Joseph C Leavitt is also registered as the person who bought the lot in Mt Pleasant Cemetery in Cambridge, where his father Ralph is buried, and likely where his son Chester was buried.

Joseph was a lay minister. Stinneford cousin Thelma Barrows in 1985 writes "I used to know Aunt Ellura and Uncle Joe real well. I used to live in Waterville until I was 9 years old. Uncle Joe used to come over and say our prayers with us at night. He was a wonderful man but religious." He died on a Wednesday. Death certificate says he committed "suicide by drowning", jumping off a bridge in Auburn. He was reportedly in great pain from some illness.

I have a church "Notice Of Transfer Mr. Joseph C Leavitt At your request I have this day sent a Certificate of Transfer of your membership to the Hammond Street Methodist Episcopal Church in Lewiston, Maine. When said Certificate is acknowledged and your name is recorded in the records of said Church, your membership in this Church will cease. [signed] E. A. Pollard Jones, Pastor. 17 January 1922. A handwritten note on the other side says: "We are sorry to have you leave us but feel that you are doing the proper thing to attach yourself to some nearer church. Sincerely, EAPJ." E A Pollard Jones was pastor at the Waterville Pleasant Street United Methodist Church 1921-1927. Not sure if he moved there by himself or with his family.

Waterville Pleasant Street United Methodist Church, 5/06, report their records say Joseph Leavitt joined their church 1 April 1894, transferring from the Brighton First Baptist Church [which no longer exists]. Ellura M joined 28 Oct 1894 from "probation" [means she had been coming a while and finally joined]. On 22 Feb 1927 she was removed by "RWC"; they don't know what that means. Sina also joined 28 Oct 1894 from probation, and died 17 Dec 1910.

Joseph married Ellura Mae STINNEFORD, daughter of George H STINNEFORD and Lupira B Maria TRAFTON, on 1 Sep 1878 in Cambridge, Somerset, ME. Ellura was born on 19 May 1860 in Brighton, Somerset, ME and died on 27 Apr 1938 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME at age 77.

Hamlin B. was bp 8 Mar 1886 at Waterville Pleasant Street United Methodist Church. Also mentioned in church records is Ella C and Fred M. Every notation is simply Hamlin B. The only B name in the family is his mother's grandfather Benjamin Morgridge who died 11 years earlier, so that is likely the name. Hamlin sued for divorce against his first wife, Nellie [2:59]. She deserted him 15 August 1891 and not heard from since. Divorce granted in Kennebec Superior Court 12 April 1895. No children. Div gave m date and place but not Nellie's last name. Lewiston m/c gives her name, both residents of Lewiston, his name still just Hamlin B, married by John F Putman, JP, no parents or other info given. Nobody named Hitchie is in Ancestry's census index. Evidently Hamlin also married Ida May Roach while he was already married. Penobscot County Probate Files have F Marion Simpson of Carmel appointed guardian 15 Feb 1888 of Ida May Roach, age 16, minor child of Ella N Roach late of Carmel. Father still living, but divorce had given custody to the mother [divorced Apr 1878, Pen 52/160 docket 836]. On 19 Apr 1890, F Marion Simpson of Carmel resigns as guardian of Ida May Roach of Bangor because he is the administrator of estate of Phebe M Soule late of Carmel in which the said Ida May Roach is interested as an heir to said estate. On May 6, 1891, F Marion Simpson files a final account as Guardian of Ida May LEAVITT, formerly of Bangor but now of Waterville. Ida May Leavitt received the last $100 in the account "Ida May Roach, now Ida May Leavitt, wife of Hamlin B Leavitt". No marriage, divorce, or death record found. Maine marriages does have Ida M Roach 23 b Bangor md Edwin S Carville 32 b Lewiston, both of L, on 8 Sep 1894 in Lewiston. Her 1st m, he wid. She a dressmaker, he a stove polisher. [Maine Divorces 5:54]. He m3 (or 4th?) Etta C Dunbar (widow Mrs Springer) 16 May 1903 in Salem MA v536 p605. Hamlin and Etta are both weavers, 32, and of Salem.
