Marriage notice found in Helen Harris' files (evidently a Lynn paper): Popular Employee of Printery Marries Recruiting Officer. A wedding which is of interest to many young people in this city, was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the Washington St. Baptist Church parsonage on Richmond street when Roy Edward Harris of Lancaster was united in marriage to Miss Hilda Oakes. The ceremony took place at 4:30 and the Rev A E K enyon was the officiating pastor. The bride was attended by Mrs Frances Qualey and Mrs L E Williams and in addition to several invited guests, Mrs Harris's Sunday School class was in attendance. The groom was formerly recruiting officer for the United States Army and Navy when the office was located in this city. He won many friends during his residence in this city who will extend congratulations on the event of this auspicious occasion. The bride until recently was employed in the folding room of the printery and was very popular with her associates. When she concluded her labors last Wednesday she was presented with a beautiful silverset and a complete outfit of table linen as a token of the esteem in which she was held by them and as a suitable remembrance for her wedding. The bride is a native of New Albany, Nova Scotia, and a part of the honeymoon will be spent there. Mr and Mrs Harris left on the 6:20 train for Boston last night and from there they will later go by boat to New Albany.

Roy Harris had dark hair and eyes acc to his WWI registration.

Roy and wife Hilda are buried in Belleville Cemetery, Newburyport.

Much of the family tree and photo identification is thanks to Helen and her fantastic memory even in her mid-90s. One family heirloom is a very nice old rocking chair that Helen told us was made from maple trees on the Oakes family farm in New Albany, probably by Charles Oakes in the late 1800s. Helen re-visited the family farm with a friend at one point (1970s?) and the new owners showed her through the whole house. We also have a porcelain plate on which somebody painted a picture of the whole farm which we will use as a guide when we go visiting to Nova Scotia; it is located on the main road that goes through town.
