From Poirier-généalogie:

A sailor named Jean Poirier arrived in Acadie into 1641 on the ship Saint-François. We do not have any proof to conclude that this one became the husband of Jeanne Chebrat towards 1647, but certain genealogists believe that he is about the ancestor of the Poirier's of New Brunswick. At all events, Michel Poirier, son of Jean, were born with Port-Royal towards 1650. This one married, at the same place, towards 1673 Marie Boudrot, daughter of Michel Boudrot and Michelle Aucoin. Michel Poirier appeared among the first colonists of Beaubassin, where he is deceased. Their son Michel, born towards 1674, married towards 1698 Madeleine Bourgeois, daughter of Germain Bourgeois and Madeleine Dugas. Michel and Madeleine had thirteen children, of which Ambroise, who married about 1732 with Marie Gaudet, daughter of Augustin Gaudet and Agnes Chiasson.

Jean (Jehan) Poirier, the first ancestor of this Poirier family, was born in France where he married, around 1646, Jeanne Chabrat. He appears to have been the soldier "Jehan Poirier" who came to Acadia in 1641 with Jacques Bourgeois on board the ship Saint Francois. So, we find the Poirier family settled in Beaubassin, Acadie, a settlement founded by Jacques Bourgeois.

Jean died around 1653 and his widow, Jeanne Chabrat, married Antoine Gougeon around 1656. The 1671 Port Royal census mentions Jeanne Chabrat, aged, 45 and her 20 yr old son Michel. Recently, the baptismal entry for Jeanne Chabrat, dated Feb. 5/1627 was found in the registers of the parish of La Chaussee, in Poirou, France.

The same register contains baptismal entries of several families who bear identical surnames as those who came to Acadia, including Poiriers although there is no entry for Jean.

The 1678 Port-Royal census tells us that Jeanne Chabrat was, at that time, a widow once again. Only two children from the Poirier-Chabrat marriage are known: Marie, born around 1649, she married Roger Caissie, and Michel, born around 1651, married Marie Boudreau. The two settled at Beaubassin around 1675. All Acadian Poirier have roots in this area.

There was an other Michel Poirier in Beaubassin born around 1667, married to Marie Chiasson, a 16 year old girl. They had a son named Michelin 1693 but it is not known if they were related to our Jean Poirier. This Poirier family was known as Michel Poirier from France.

Descendants of Michel, son of Jehan Poirier, are the most numerous of the two Poirier families and are found in the Maritime provinces and in Quebec province such as Gaspé area, Rimouski, Montmagny and Nicolet area.

Several members of this Poirier family had "dit" names, such as Joseph dit Lantine, (from Cocagne) Joseph dit Gourdiac (exiled to Louisiana) Charles dit Commis (my ancestor, settled in Bonaventure, PQ) Pierre dit Chiche (also settled in Bonaventure, PQ) Pierre dit Doiron and Jean Baptiste dit Canique (both in Nicolet, PQ, in 1787)

Some Poiriers who settled on Prince Edward Island, changed their name to Perry (Anglicized version) such was the case of Sylvain Poirier priest, born on PEI in 1801 signed his name Sylvain Perry.

Notes from Lorette Marchand when visiting and discussing the family tree ca 2000, who also had Poirier family charts that I copied, say Pierre had several ch. Octave and Alexis were twins, and born 1833 [but records indicate 1843]. Meleine might be Emeline, and also other ch. Octave also had other ch. 1901 PEI Census gives exact birthdate for Octave, so I am using that date. April 2009 - when donating photos to the Newburyport Public Library Historical room, I discovered a new Poirier cousin, Cecile Pimental, 978-465-3755, picorose@msn.com . Her records identify 3 more generations: Who I had as simply Mr Poirier is Raphail Poirier 1800-1884 & Edeste Arsenault (dau of Placide Arsenault & Scholastique); his parents Germain Poirier & Esther Aucion (dau of Jean Aucion & Rosalie Bernard); his father Jean Baptiste Poirier. She has ch of Raphail and also Alexis that I don't have, and vice versa.

The early generations are in question with conflicting info and trees on Ancestry.
