Marriage notice found in Helen Harris' files (evidently a Lynn paper): Popular Employee of Printery Marries Recruiting Officer.

A wedding which is of interest to many young people in this city, was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the Washington St. Baptist Church parsonage on Richmond street when Roy Edward Harris of Lancaster was united in marriage to Miss Hilda Oakes. The ceremony took place at 4:30 and the Rev A E K enyon was the officiating pastor. The bride was attended by Mrs Frances Qualey and Mrs L E Williams and in addition to several invited guests, Mrs Harris's Sunday School class was in attendance. The groom was formerly recruiting officer for the United States Army and Navy when the office was located in this city. He won many friends during his residence in this city who will extend congratulations on the event of this auspicious occasion.

The bride until recently was employed in the folding room of the printery and was very popular with her associates. When she concluded her labors last Wednesday she was presented with a beautiful silverset and a complete outfit of table linen as a token of the esteem in which she was held by them and as a suitable remembrance for her wedding. The bride is a native of New Albany, Nova Scotia, and a part of the honeymoon will be spent there. Mr and Mrs Harris left on the 6:20 train for Boston last night and from there they will later go by boat to New Albany.

Roy Harris had dark hair and eyes acc to his WWI registration. Roy and wife Hilda are buried in Belleville Cemetery, Newburyport.

1920 Groveton, Northumberland Town, Coos NH p 231: Roy E Harris, renter, M age 33, b NH-RI-NH, salesman retail grocery; Oakes H wife 30 immigrated 1910 naturalized; Helen L dau 5 b MA; Viola P dau 3 b NH; Frank O son 1 b NH. They also lived on North Main St in Lancaster.

Roy didn't go to church and Hilda was a Baptist. A neighbor offered to bring the kids to the Newburyport Congregational Church with her and that is how they became Congregationalists. Roy was a butcher, so the family had meat during the WWII shortages.

Oliver: General Notes:

Granddaughter Nancy Lloyd nrl3d@earthlink.net 12/09 says:
Elsie A. Oliver was born in Oct 1890. She died 30 Dec 1953. I think she actually died in Virginia--she was visiting her daughter, Mildred--but she's buried in Elkins, NH (they were living in New London, NH by that time).

William M Oliver was born in Aug 1852 in New Brunswick. I found a likely candidate for his family in St. George Parish, but they're Irish, not English so I'm not sure if this is the right family. I haven't found a death date yet, but obviously it was between 1900 and 1910. [d not recorded in MA VR through 1910] He married Eunice Ann Oakes in 1881. Eunice died in 1931.
